Ideas call over how funds can be spent

TRADERS in Burntwood are being urged to put forward ideas on how best to spend a £50,000 grant to revitalise the town.

Cash has come from the High Street Innovation Fund but no plans are yet in place for what to do with it.

Burntwood Town Council leader Councillor Diane Evans, has asked that businesses contribute to discussions on how the money is best spent.

It is available to support empty properties, promote businesses and communities and develop ideas to make the area more vibrant.

Dreadful

She said: "Chasetown High Street that is suffering from the long-term closure of the road, continuous flooding problems in the 20mph zone at Sankeys Corner and the dreadful car park at Rycroft shops are some ideas that may be developed."

She added: "This is an opportunity for traders to have their say in how they think the money is best spent for the benefit of themselves and the residents of Burntwood."

Traders should contact town clerk Mary Danby on 01543 677166 or call into the office at Lambourne House, Sankeys Corner, to leave a name and address.

Man dies in car accident

A MAN has died after his car left the road on Cannock Chase.

The silver 4X4 was travelling from Pye Green towards Marquis Drive when the accident happened at around 11.15am on Tuesday at Brindley Road, Hednesford. The driver, a man aged in his 30s from Rugeley, was pronounced dead at the scene.

A female passenger in her 20s was airlifted to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire.

FAMILIES MAY SUE OVER QUARRY USE

by Marion Brennan

RESIDENTS living behind a quarry in Cheslyn Hay say they face a summer of discontent following the resumption of excavations at the site.

Dozens of residents are considering suing the owner for spoiling the peace of their village. They say they will not be able to enjoy their gardens as the good weather arrives because of the constant noise of lorries and excavators at Campions Wood.

Families say they are already troubled by the noise of the recycling depot at at Hollybush Garden Centre, on the A462 Warstone Road, owned by Jack Moody Ltd. The firm also operates the quarry on behalf of the owner, Streetly-based land developer Dr Nigel Roberts.

He has had permission to quarry since April 12 but has only just started to excavate - 15 years after the quarry was last in use. Currently nothing has been transported from the 30-acre site.

Residents expect up to 100 lorries a day travelling to and from Campions Wood although vehicles will not be able to pass through the village under new conditions.

Secretary of State Eric Pickles approved a 30-year mineral extraction programme for the site in January.

Up to 2,000 tons of material will be dug out from the land off Wolverhampton Road on a daily basis. The quarry is near two schools, homes and junction 11 of the M6.

Resident Angela Dunn, aged 48, said: "We feel under siege."

Horrific

"It is distressing not to be able to sit in the garden because of the constant noise, particularly of reversing beepers."

"The noise from the recycling centre, which crushes bricks, has got worse recently. The smell from the composting unit was horrific last summer. Now the quarry has re-started."

Ken Gould, 68, of nearby Hill Street, said he would miss walking his dog there but was more worried about the long-term plans for the area. The owner has applied unsuccessfully to build hundreds of homes at the site.

A spokesman for Jack Moody Ltd said: "There are only two machines working at the quarry, and they are required by law to use reversing beepers."

"We are sorry if local people have been affected. The company has been part of the community for 50 years and employs a lot of local people."

The area which will be excavated is the size of 15 football pitches.

Mark and Angela Dunn and Steve and Lorraine Halls, of Pinfold Lane, Cheslyn Hay, are unhappy about the resumption of quarry operations behind their homes

Athletics club is on the move yet again

AN athletics club that had to find a new training venue when Cannock Stadium closed says it is being forced to move again.

Cannock and Stafford Athletics Club had to find a new base when the stadium shut in 2008.

The organisation, which has between 200 and 300 members, relocated to Stafford's Rowley Park Stadium.

But now Stafford Borough Council is spending thousands of pounds creating a new artificial pitch in the middle of its running track, which means the club can no longer practise field sports such as javelin.

Training

Club spokesman John Turner said the organisation was looking at other places to train in Stoke-on-Trent and Telford.

He said: "We moved to Rowley Park but now we can't use it any more because of the artificial pitch."

"In the year of the Olympics to be having our last training session it's unbelievable."

"We lost Cannock and now we're going to lose this too," he added.

Contractors will start work on Monday (May 28) creating the new floodlit artificial grass football pitch at Rowley Park.

Funeral of journalist

THE funeral of a former journalist was taking place today (Thursday).

Neil Aitchison, a 44-year-old father of twins from Cheslyn Hay, died after a six-month battle with skin cancer.

The service was taking place at St Mark's Church, Great Wyrley, at 12.45pm, followed by committal at Bushbury Crematorium.

Mourners were then being invited to Old Wyrley Hall, in Old Hall Lane.

BOILER SCRAPPAGE SCHEME IS BACK, GET A £400 VOUCHER FOR YOUR OLD BOILER

Boiler Scrappage Scheme is back, get a £400 voucher for your old boiler.

In 2010 the government ran a scheme in which domestic home owners could replace their expensive to run gas boiler for a new condensing boiler, this scheme was set up to help home owners with the initial cost of replacing the boiler plus helping the government in reaching its carbon emissions target.

The £400 voucher could be redeemed when replacing an old, inefficient central heating boiler for a new high efficient gas boiler.

APH Services Ltd of Rugeley have re introduced the Scrappage scheme for a limited time, Matt Clarke of APH Services Ltd said "the £400 voucher is a great way for local home owners to replace their boilers during these hard economic times."

Vouchers will be given to the first 100 customers meeting the criteria so you are advised to inform family and friends ASAP.

A rated gas condensing boilers are 90% efficient and with the correct thermostatic controls can save you 30% on your gas bill, that's up to £350 per year in an average 3 bed house.

To obtain your voucher call APH Services Ltd.

Campaign to cut costs of childcare

A STAFFORDSHIRE business has launched a campaign to make childcare costs more affordable.

As family finances become more of a challenge in the current climate, recent reports have suggested some working parents spend up to half of their salary on the cost of childcare. Costs have risen by more than six per cent in the last year.

Busy Bees Benefits, based in Shenstone and part of the Busy Bees

Group, has launched the campaign to help working parents save more money on the cost of their childcare.

Called 'Mind the Gap - Raise the Cap', the campaign aims for a change in government policy so the amount of childcare vouchers a working parent can receive each week can be increased from £55 to £75. The current cap has been unchanged since 2006. Parents currently using a voucher scheme can save up to £9,333 per year. But Busy Bees managing director John Woodward, from Upper Longdon, Rugeley, said, this saving did not go far enough.

"We think the government should do much more for working parents to help with childcare costs," he said.

"We feel that £75 is an achievable target, which will make a real difference. With the cap at £75, basic rate taxpayers taking the maximum amount in childcare vouchers could save an extra £3,003 per year."

Mr Woodward has set up an e-petition to support the campaign, which can be found at <http://epetitions.direct.gov.uk/petitions/31669>

Reaching 100,000 signatures could lead to the issue being raised in the House of Commons and Busy Bees hope the current policy will be changed in the 2013 Budget.

Wildlife Trust 100 years is marked

DEDICATED supporters helped to celebrate the Wildlife Trusts' centenary.

More than 70 long-serving members gathered at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Wolsley Centre HQ to mark 100 years since Charles Rothschild set up the society.

He and a small group of avid naturalists began championing the creation of specially protected nature reserves as sanctuaries for wildlife. Over the decades the movement gathered pace and grassroots conservation groups were set up all over the country to safeguard important local wildlife habitats. Staffordshire Wildlife Trust was founded in 1969, and is now one of 47 local Wildlife Trusts across the UK.

The Trust's membership development officer Sarah Collier said: "We wanted to mark this special occasion, and also share stories and memories with those who have been supporting Staffordshire Wildlife Trust for over 20 years."

Guests were taken on a guided walk around the grounds, before enjoying tea and cake with the trust's chief executive Guy Corbett-Marshall, trustees and founder members.

Motorbiker hurt in fall

A TEENAGE motorcyclist was flown to hospital after falling off his bike in Cannock.

The 17-year-old rider suffered pelvic and chest injuries and was airlifted to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire following the fall in Voyager Drive at 6pm last Wednesday (May 16).

Police closed a section of the road after the accident. For a short time, the A460 Eastern Way was also closed in both directions between Lichfield Road and Orbital Island.

Party at primary

A RUGELEY school will reenact the Coronation next week. Year Six pupils and the school council have organised the Jubilee event on Thursday (May 31) at Etching Hill Primary, Penk Drive North. Pupils and staff will also dress in red, white and blue for a party in the playground.

Health bosses launch staff awards scheme

HEALTH bosses have launched an awards scheme for staff at Cannock and Stafford hospitals. Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust will reward outstanding service.

Members of the public and colleagues will be asked to nominate candidates who go "beyond their day-to-day job".

Children's half-term sports fun for just £1

YOUNGSTERS can get inspired to take part in multi-sports coaching sessions during the half-term break - for just a £1 per day.

The sessions are being run by Inspired Coaching, led by former Hednesford Town and Macclesfield Town and Crewe Alexandra footballer Richard Walker. They take place at Wolgarston High School, Cannock Road, Penkridge from 10am to 3pm on June 6 and 7 and are open to boys and girls, aged five-to-14.

The multi-activity sessions will include football, kwik-cricket, dodgeball and basketball.

Mr Walker, who also played for Crewe, Port Vale and Wrexham, said: "This is my community and I want to encourage children to be active. Many families are finding it difficult and we want all children to be able to participate."

"We have had an amazing year at Inspired, and want to give something back to the community as a gesture of thanks for their support."

Numbers are limited so booking is advised. Visit www.inspired-coaching.com or email leon@inspired-coaching.com

The winners will be revealed at a ceremony, supported by the Stafford and Cannock League of Hospital Friends and other sponsors, in September.

Launching the scheme, trust chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout urged residents to get behind the awards.

"We know there is a lot of very good practice in our trust, both on the front line and behind the scenes, and we want to give people the opportunity to recognise it," she said.

"We are encouraging the local community to take the time to make a nomination and help highlight the positive aspects of services at Mid Staffs."

Improved

The closing date for nominations is July 31. Awards will be made for staff who are deemed to have improved patient care or staff safety, listened and acted on feedback, supported other staff or improved the way the hospital works.

The ceremony will be held at Chase Golf Club, in Pottal Pool on September 28.

To nominate someone for the awards scheme, go to www.midstaffs.nhs.uk/GetInvolved/Mid-Staffs-Stars

Patients quizzed

PATIENTS discharged from Cannock and Stafford will be asked if they would recommend the hospital to friends and family. The initiative has been in place for discharged patients since April 1. Responses will be publicly available.

Shop's new look welcomed

CUSTOMERS have been giving their seal of approval to a newly refurbished charity shop in Chadsmoor.

The International Aid Trust shop in Cannock Road, closed for a day while work took place and now has a completely new look. Stocks have also been updated, with new clothes, books and bric-a-brac on sale.

Alison Cardy, area co-ordinator, said: "The refurbishment has made a massive difference."

"Customers are coming in making favourable comments, which makes the hard work of our shop staff worthwhile." International Aid Trust also has shops in Heath Hayes, Hednesford and Pelsall.

MP set to hand over DofE Gold

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson will present a Heath Hayes man with a top prize tomorrow night (Friday) – a Duke of Edinburgh Gold award.

Liam Kennedy, aged 20, undertook his DofE with the 1st Cheslyn Hay Boys' Brigade where he has been a member since the age of five. Mr Williamson is guest of honour at the Brigade's annual awards night at the Salem Methodist Church. Later in the year, Liam will visit St James's Palace to receive his certificate.

To achieve the award, Liam undertook a variety of activities including learning to drive and volunteering in sports leadership.

Handball

He achieved refereeing awards in football and coaching awards in rugby. Liam also tried a new sport for his physical section, choosing handball. In addition, he joined six other young men from the Wolverhampton Battalion to complete a 50-mile four-day expedition through Snowdonia.

For his residential Liam enjoyed a week volunteering at a National Trust working holiday at Leith Hill, Surrey. Liam is currently studying law at Sheffield University and will make the trip back to receive his award.

Motor firm in collapse

A MOTOR accessory chain with a branch in Cannock has gone into administration.

Grant Thornton has been appointed to handle Richard C Hartley Ltd, which trades as Motorman and Midland Car Parts.

Derby-based Motorman has 17 branches in all. One in Avon Road, Cannock, is among those affected.

It was established 25 years ago and is one of the largest independent motor accessory and parts suppliers in the Midlands and north of England.

Cyclist injured

A CYCLIST was taken to hospital after coming off his bike in Cannock in a collision with a Vauxhall Vectra. The man, believed to be in his 40s, injured his arm. Police diverted traffic at the roundabout by the Co-Op Pharmacy on the junction of Hednesford Road, Lichfield Road and Church Street from 9.15am until 10am.

Restaurant dishes up a boost to charity

Councillor Eddie Smith with Saima Spice manager Rasel Miah and staff

A NEW Asian restaurant has opened in Cannock and immediately curried favour with a cancer charity.

The Saima Spice, an Indian and Bangladeshi restaurant in Walsall Road, chose to raise funds for Macmillan Cancer research on its launch day, May 14. Half of its profits from food sold on the night will be donated to the cause.

Bridgton parish council chairman Councillor Eddie Smith was at the launch night, along with district councillor John Kraujalis. Diners enjoyed an array of speciality dishes, while also raising funds for Macmillan Cancer Support.

The Saima Spice is under the management of Rasel Miah.

Delighted

It is fully licensed and also offers a takeaway and delivery service.

Councillor Smith said: "I am delighted that Saima Spice has chosen Macmillan for their charity evening. I wish the restaurant every success for the future".

Janos Toth, area fundraising manager for Macmillan Cancer Support said: "The money raised on the evening will be used to improve the lives of people affected by cancer. Macmillan provide emotional, practical, medical and financial support.

"Ninety seven per cent Macmillan's income comes from fundraising and donations and so we really appreciate the support from Rasel and his team."

Council house tenants can keep their homes for life

HOUSING chiefs have ruled that council tenants in Cannock Chase can continue to have homes for life even if they could afford to move into private accommodation.

But people on the waiting list for a home across the district could get priority if they have been in the Armed Forces or are fostering children under new proposals.

Rules granting lifetime tenancies to council tenants have been abolished by the Government, granting councils more freedom to decide on their own arrangements.

It has led to one council in London, Hammersmith and Fulham, drawing up plans to ban couples earning a combined £40,000 a year from waiting lists.

The Labour-controlled Cannock Chase Council considered the introduction of fixed-term tenancies but decided to continue to offer lifetime tenancies for another two years. However a review of how houses are allocated is now under way.

Priority

Cannock Chase Council spokesman Jamie Summerfield said: "Two of the issues which are being considered are the potential additional priority to foster families and former members of the armed forces."

Across the West Midlands, Walsall Housing Group, which provides social housing in the borough, already prohibits couples on combined incomes of over £45,000 from applying. Next year will see benefit cuts for working age tenants living in properties that are too big for them.

by Dan Wainwright

People under-occupying by one or two rooms will see their housing benefit cut 14 per cent of 25 per cent respectively from next April. But Labour-run councils in Sandwell, Dudley and Wolverhampton have rejected the government's plans and will continue to keep things as they are, despite soaring waiting lists.

While the Government does not set any salary cap, housing minister Grants Shapps has suggested those earning more than £100,000 should not be entitled to a council home.

The general secretary of the Rail Maritime and Transport workers trade union (RMT) Bob Crow earns £145,000 a year but has stayed in his £150-a-week rent council house in North London.

Raiders take kitchen sink

METAL thieves raided two Chase firms on consecutive nights, causing thousands of pounds in damage.

Cannock Dairies on the Conduit Industrial Estate in Cannock was targeted at around 5am last Wednesday (May 16) with an estimated £5,000 of damage caused. The raiders took a kitchen sink from outside the premises.

The following evening, Magna Energy Services, based at Image Business Park in Keys Park Road, Hednesford, was raided by burglars who took a large fan, worth £700.

Charlotte Harris with newborn foal Dakota at Cannock Chase Trekking Centre

Dakota's horsing around

A DAYS-old foal is wowing visitors to the Cannock Chase Trekking centre with its unusual black and white markings and Bambi-like walk.

Dakota arrived last week to first-time mother Nichol after several sleepless nights for the staff. The new arrival was the third foal to be born at the centre since owners Lisa Gregory and Mark Bennett decided to breed their own horses.

Mark said: "He is the cutest foal we've ever had here. Lots of people have been down to have a look at him, especially the regular riders."

"He is definitely the centre of attention with his unusual markings. He looks he's got white eye liner around his eyes."

The centre now has a stallion, Zidane, Dakota's father, for breeding purposes.

"Horses are much easier to train if they're bred on site," said Mark.

"It's like having a blank surface to work on, with no bad habits to get rid of, and it means they settle in quicker."

Dakota will not be ready to carry riders at the centre for another five years.

"He walks like Bambi at the moment but he's sure to be a popular ride when he's older," added Mark.

THE BEST
RHODES

IF THE Civil Service can manage without thousands of its employees at their offices during the seven weeks of the London Olympics, then it can probably manage without them altogether.

MEANWHILE, if civil servants are relishing the prospect of working from home, following orders by phone and email, they should remember this. If there is one thing worse than the boss not having his workers in the office, it is the workers having the boss in their own homes.

□□□□□□□□

IT TOOK less than a year for the 1945-46 Nuremberg trials to hear the evidence against 25 top Nazis, reach its judgments and execute the wickedest. Today we are told that the trial in The Hague of Ratko Mladic, the "Butcher of Bosnia" could take up to three years. More Hague, less speed?

□□□□□□□□

SOME friends of ours have just been allocated their London Olympics tickets – four seats for the athletics. They are thrilled, and puzzled that I do not share their excitement. It occurs to me that there are only two sorts of people in the world, those who love being in crowds and those who detest it. Discuss.

□□□□□□□□

THERE is also the irritating fact that no matter how good a seat you get at the Olympics or any other great event, television will always get a better view. I had a press seat in St Paul's for the Charles and Diana Royal Wedding all those years ago. I couldn't wait to get home and see it properly on the telly.

□□□□□□□□

THE Royal Society for the Protection of Birds is protesting once again about plans to turn the awesome water power of the Severn Estuary into massive amounts of clean, green electricity. I enjoy birds as much as anyone but I fail to see why Britain's energy industry should be held to ransom by a bunch of peewits.

□□□□□□□□

AN OLD friend mourns the passing of his soldering iron. It was a British-made model and it has given up the ghost after 48 years. It hardly needs adding that the maker has long since vanished. No-one ever made money manufacturing a product which only needs replacing every half-century.

□□□□□□□□

ED BALLS is reported to be pressing Labour to make a General Election promise of a referendum on the UK's continued membership of the EU. This is presumably the same Labour Party which promised no university tuition fees. And let's not forget that the Tories promised no deeper involvement in the EU without a referendum (and then cheerfully signed up to the Lisbon Treaty), and said nothing at all in their manifesto about gay marriage which has suddenly become an article of faith. If politicians did what they promised, they wouldn't be politicians.

□□□□□□□□

A READER who works as a guide at a stately home was congratulated by an American visitor on the closely-trimmed lawns. She explained that the head gardener sprinkled whisky on the lawns each evening so the grass came up half-cut.

"I'll try that when I get home," said the American, earnestly.

Helping hand offered to businesses

COMPANIES across Cannock Chase are being offered help by the district council's Environmental Health Business Support team.

The support will help business to simplify compliance with regulations and improve areas like hygiene and health and safety standards.

The authority is looking for businesses who would be interested in forming a new working relationship with the team.

Instead of inspections, businesses will receive free advice visits, regular updates on new legislation and regular telephone support from the council's business support officer. This service is free of charge to all local businesses and will not involve enforcement action.

Understanding

Councillor Muriel Davis, leader of health and wellbeing, said: "We are urging all local businesses that feel they need help with understanding regulations or require general help and support to get in touch with our environmental health team."

The council is also encouraging businesses to apply for a Workplace Health Award, which celebrates investments in healthy workplaces and recognises the efforts of a responsible employer.

A number of businesses, namely Pat-a-Cakes, Sugar Kisses, Stig Tattoo, Longford Farmhouse B&B and Murtagh Seafood, are already taking advantage of the service.

For more information about the business support or the Workplace Health Award, contact Environmental Health on 01543 464689 or visit www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/ehhelp4business to download a free information leaflet.

Neighbours hot under collar over dog creche

NEIGHBOURS are barking mad over a businesswoman's plan to open a day creche for dogs in Hednesford.

Plans have been lodged to transform an empty business unit at Image Business Park, off East Cannock Road, into a dog day nursery.

by Harry Gottschalk

Claire Smith wants to convert the unit off East Cannock Road into a dog care centre which she says will be an alternative to traditional kennels. It is thought people at work will leave their pets there.

In the paperwork sent to Cannock Chase council planning chiefs, Miss Smith says the 2,690 sq ft centre will be similar to a child nursery setting.

But neighbours have expressed concerns over the noise of dogs barking. So far 17 people have written in with objections.

One, Neil Berry, of Swallowfields Drive, said: "I strongly object to this application because of the noise it will create to local residents – also the smell and the mess this amount of dogs will make."

Unbearable

Mr Andrew Dzuba, of Lower Road, said: "With the best will in the world, it is not possible to keep 16 dogs quiet and will pose an intolerable and unbearable noise nuisance to residents who live close by and employees who also work in the units."

Miss Smith, of Albert

Street, does not expect the unit to have more than 16 dogs at any one time accessing the dog day care centre.

At present, there are no plans to have any dogs kept at the site overnight. In the supporting statement submitted to the council planners, Miss Smith states: "Dogs shall be temperament and behaviour tested for enrolment to the day care. This is to ensure they are a suitable balanced candidate."

It is also pointed out to the council the new business would be careful to respect the surrounding area.

The report says: "A strict clean up hygiene policy shall be enforced both internally and externally, ensuring the surrounding site and units are not compromised by the facility."

"The dogs would not be walked in and around the business park or surrounding areas."

Miss Smith says the new business would create four new jobs and the new enterprise would operate between the hours of 7am and 7pm, Monday to Saturday.

Party with transport firm

JUBILEE street party organisers can celebrate in style courtesy of Arriva Buses. The company is offering a special jubilee street party bus packed with commemorative items including union flags, bunting and deck chairs, party poppers, pitchers of Pimms, pots of tea, tiers of cakes, crowns and hats and blue balloons.

The winning party planners will also be given a time capsule to capture their special moment. Entrants must tell Arriva in no more than 100 words why they deserve the jubilee bus to arrive in their road between June 2 and 5. Email jubilee@arriva.co.uk or call 0845 270 1660.

EX-champ's frame of snooker

SNOOKER ace Steve Davis signed autographs and met fans while helping a firm in Cannock celebrate 25 years of being in business.

Windows and conservatories specialist Goliath Home World in Navigation Way, is a member of Network VEKA, which is committed to raising the standards of quality in the industry.

As an ambassador of the organisation, the six-time world snooker champion was invited to help celebrate the anniversary.

Deborah Shields, aged 49, of Pye Green Road, Cannock, got the 54-year-old star to sign some photos from the 1980s.

Michael Barlow, 57, of Rowley Close, Hednesford, also met the star on Saturday (May 19).

Talks over future of bus route into city

TALKS are being held to see if a bus service linking Cannock and Birmingham can be saved. The X31 service initially faced the axe on June 2.

Bosses claimed the decision, which sparked anger from passengers, was taken due to a lack of users. Arriva later agreed to delay the decision until September.

Centro and Staffordshire County Council have stepped in to fund the service and Arriva says it has entered into talks over its future plans.

Figures

Spokesman Keith Myatt said the service would continue to operate until at least September 2 and that discussions would take place with Centro and Staffordshire County Council.

Centro spokesman Steve Swingle said: "It is important in the meantime for passengers to continue using the service. Passenger figures will be taken into consideration."

The service runs Monday to Saturday, between Cannock Bus Station and Carrs Lane in Birmingham with the first service at 6.15am during the working week.

Make beeline for trust's HQ

NATURE lovers can make a beeline for Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's HQ over the Jubilee weekend. The Trust is joining forces with The Bumblebee Conservation Trust to stage a free Wild Bee Weekend at the Wolseley Centre on June 2 and 3 from 11am to 4pm.

Visitors will be able to enjoy guided bee walks and talks, while youngsters can do arts and crafts, seed-planting and embark on a bumblebee discovery trail.

On the Sunday gardeners can stock up on bee-friendly blooms in a plant sale and there will be face-painting fun and refreshments.

Advice surgery

BONEY Hay ward Burntwood Town councillors are holding their monthly public surgery on Saturday (May 26). Councillors Diane Evans, Russell Heath and Ron Bradbury will be available to discuss any local issues between 11am and noon at Boney Hay WMC, in North Street.

Bus route now back to normal

A BUS service connecting Cannock to Wolverhampton has returned to normal this week following months of roadworks along a busy main route.

The Arriva Midlands service 77, which serves Cannock, Bridgton and Cheslyn Hay, has operated an emergency alternative route since last summer thanks to roadworks along the A460 Cannock Road, in Featherstone.

As of Monday this week, the old timetable has been reinstated.

Arriva Midlands spokesman Keith Myatt said the alternative route and timetable was introduced as an urgent measure after passengers suffered severe delays at the start of the resurfacing work.

Patient

"We know our customers understand that the delays were beyond our control and thank them for being patient during this period of major disruption," he said.

The works had been due to finish at the end of last month, but were delayed due to heavy rainfall affecting the ground conditions.

The work, which finally finished last week, is linked to the new Oakwood prison which opened in Featherstone last month.

The new timetable is available from Wolverhampton Bus Station and at www.arrivabus.co.uk

A workshop on floristry

SOUTH Staffordshire College is holding a floristry workshop at its Rodbaston Campus next month.

The morning session takes place from 10am to noon on Saturday, June 23. The full-day workshop runs until 3pm.

Places for the workshop must be booked by June 18 or on the morning of the demonstration for the two-hour session.

Jubilee fun day

A DARTS competition and a dominoes knockout will feature in a free jubilee party at a Cannock club. It takes place on Monday, June 4 at St Mary's Club, Hallcourt Lane. There will also be a children's party, with entertainment for the youngsters and a bouncy castle. Call 01543 579364 for details.

Trafficking highlighted in awareness campaign

Soroptimists Ann Rotchell, Carolyn Dyer, President Pam McGauley and Trish Mellor

HEALTH professionals, education workers and police and welfare officers saw a harrowing film highlighting sex trafficking.

Councillors and members of service organisations were also among the 120-plus guests at the presentation given by Cannock Soroptimists. It marked the end of the club's 12-month Purple Teardrop awareness campaign and included the screening of a DVD called "My Dangerous Loverboy".

The campaign forms part of Soroptimists' work to eliminate violence against women and girls and was based on a national charity formed by SI Poole in 2008. The club's work over the last year saw more than 4,000 leaflets distributed, hundreds of posters displayed, information passed on to taxi cabs and presentations made to South Staffordshire College students.

A club spokesman said the evening aimed to raise the awareness of trafficking to a wider audience. She said: "Trafficking is present in many areas of the UK. It is not limited to borders or to inner cities."

"Cannock Chase is, unfortunately, geographically well placed for trafficking. Young people need to be aware of the issue in the hope they will not become victims."

A spokesman for Staffordshire Women's Aid, one of the agencies at the presentation, said: "The impact of trafficking can be far reaching and deeply damaging."

Staffordshire Women's Aid offers a specialist Sexual Violence Support Service - Survive - for those that have been trafficked, exploited or sexually abused, either at home or by a stranger. Survive also has a specialist Young Women's Worker who will work with girls from the age of 11.

An Independent Sexual Violence Advisor can help women throughout and after any court case and support is confidential and offered at safe and private venues.

Referrals can be made by agencies or individuals to 0870 2700 123.

Residents voice concerns as travellers set up illegal camp

TRAVELLERS have set up an illegal camp in the heart of Burntwood, sparking residents' fears that their stay may be long-term.

The unwelcome visitors moved onto private land between shops and houses in Cannock Road, Chase Terrace, but the council has run into problems contacting the owner.

Sack board call by MP over A&E reopening

HEALTH trust boss Lyn Hill-Tout has been questioned by the Cannock Chase MP over the delayed reopening of Stafford Hospital's A&E department.

The ward has been closed overnight since last December and had been scheduled to reopen on a 24-hour basis in June, after originally being planned for March. The date was last week put back again until October.

Aidan Burley MP questioned the move and claims the Mid-Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust should be sacked if the ward does not now open as planned.

"I am deeply disappointed and frustrated by this further delay," he said.

"If the A&E Department now opens in October, as planned, it will have been closed for at least 10 months - an unacceptable length of time for my constituents to be without this vital local service."

"If the hospital does not open in October, or earlier, the governors should sack the board who have had long enough to solve this problem"

Around six mobile homes and vans have moved onto the site. It is believed to be the third camp the travellers have set up in the district in recent weeks.

They arrived from Ironstone Road last Wednesday (May 16).

Police have twice visited the site after complaints from neighbours about noise and stray dogs.

One resident in Cannock Street, who asked not to be named, said: "It's very unsettling."

"I feel very uncomfortable having them so close but no-one wants to confront them."

County Councillor Paul Atkins, who represents Chase Terrace, has protested to Lichfield District Council.

Progress

He said: "The problem is that the owner is thought to be in India and the authority's hands are tied until they speak to him."

He added: "This is their third camp in the area in two weeks which is not acceptable. It costs £3,000 of ratepayers' money every time travellers are moved on."

Councillor Ian Pritchard, Lichfield district council's cabinet member for environmental protection, said the authority was attempting to contact the landowner.

Staffordshire Police spokesman Peter Bates said they were working with the district council to "progress the situation".

VE Day to remember for pupils

Year 11 public services students in the garden of remembrance at Staffordshire University Academy

PUPILS in Hednesford had a history lesson with a difference as they marked VE Day.

Staffordshire University Academy, the former Blake Valley Technology College, held a street party in the canteen, invited veterans into the school and sold crosses to create a garden of remembrance.

VE Day, May 8, marks the day in 1945 when the Second World War Allies formally accepted the unconditional surrender of the armed forces of Nazi Germany.

Julie Bickley, the Marston Road academy's catering manager, helped to organise the event. She said: "This is the second or third time we have done such an event."

"As far as I know we are the only school in the area that does anything to mark VE Day."

"It helps the children to learn, as if it had not happened we would not be here today doing what we are doing."

Further theme days are planned at the academy, including one to mark Euro 2012, another to celebrate the Olympics and one to commemorate Remembrance Day in November.

NEWS in brief

No strings fun in park organised

RESIDENTS in Chase Terrace can bring along a picnic and enjoy a special event to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The Puppets in the Park event has been organised by St John's Community Church and takes place on Sunday, July 1 from 11am to 3pm in the park behind the church.

It will feature music, outdoor games for all the family, a puppet show as well as the chance to hold an Olympic torch.

College heading back to the 50s

VISITORS to Kingsmead Technology College can join in the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations next week.

Anyone coming along on Thursday (May 31) is asked to bring in an old school photograph. There will be the chance to scan the extensive archives to help to identify faces from the past.

There will be a chance to make bunting and a medley of songs and dancing from the 50s. The fun starts at 9.30am at the Kings Avenue school.

Fun day to aid Help for Heroes

A FUNDRAISING fun day is being held at a Rugeley club in aid of Help for Heroes and animal charities.

The Charity Gala Fun Day takes place on Sunday, July 1 at Lea Hall Social Club, in Sandy Lane, from 11am-4pm.

During the day there will be stalls, rides, games for young and old, along with face painting.

For details call Ruth Dewis on 01543 413658.

Fire crew called to garage blaze

A FIRE was sparked in a garage in Cannock after petrol being poured into a generator ignited.

Firefighters managed to contain the blaze in Portland Place at 3.15pm on Monday (May 21).

A man at the scene, who was refuelling equipment used for washing drive-ways, was unhurt.

Three-car crash

EMERGENCY services attended a three-car collision off Rugeley Road, at around 3.50pm on Monday (May 21). No-one was believed to be seriously injured.

To Ted it's so much more than just a paper round

As we celebrate Local Newspaper Week we talk to Ted Adams about his weekly Chronicle round

TO MOST people doing a paper round may seem like a normal everyday activity. But for teenager Ted Adams, who three years ago was diagnosed with a brain tumour, it's far more than that.

Now aged 15, Ted underwent two major operations at Birmingham Children's Hospital and received proton radiotherapy treatment in America.

The Royal Wolverhampton School pupil has since received three positive brain scans and, as part of his bid to lead as normal a life as possible, took up a paper round delivering The Chronicle last October.

Prayer

Ted is just one of the many delivery boys and girls throughout the region who, whatever the weather, take the news to your door.

Ted gives up two hours of his time to deliver 170 newspapers every Friday, as well as the Wolverhampton Magazine once a month, around Penn Common.

"I hadn't really thought about doing something like this but when the opportunity came up I thought it'd be great," Ted said.

"It makes me feel independent as I make some money from it and it's good to do normal things like this after the problems I had."

Ted is currently sitting his GCSEs and hopes to study catering at Wolverhampton College in September.

Ted's parents Ashleigh and David said seeing their son do the paper round meant a lot to them.

"It is every prayer answered that Ted is strong and well and able to do a paper

Off on his round – Ted with his proud mother Ashleigh round," Ashleigh said. "It keeps him fit, gives him responsibility, teaches a good work ethic and he enjoys earning a bit of money which gives him a sense of independence."

"It's also given him confidence and that's been really important. For us it is far more than just delivering papers – it represents Ted leading a normal teenage life."

Local Newspaper Week is an ideal opportunity time for us to pay tribute to all the hard-working boys and girls who take our news to the door every week.

"We are local newspapers with local news about local people and we aim to give readers what they want," said Chronicles series Group Editor Sue Attwater.

"Over the years we have built up a strong readership and we never underestimate the importance of each and every one of our readers and delivery teams."

Gina loves her Chronicle fix

SHE is a community person who knows all there is to know about Wolverhampton, but Gina Parker isn't happy unless she's had her weekly Chronicle fix.

The Finchfield resident has been reading the paper for as long as she can remember and said it fitted in with her fervent passion for the city.

Gina, who used to work at Boulton Paul and as a teacher at Sandwell College, is an active community resident who is involved in an over 50s forum and the older people's partnership board.

Information

"I'm very passionate about Wolverhampton – I've lived here all my life and if you chopped my legs off it'd say Wolverhampton all the way through," she said.

"I think the Chronicle represents the city very well. There is so much to learn about in Wolverhampton and there are lots of local activities you don't necessarily get to hear about unless you see it in the paper. I see things I might not have seen otherwise. It might only be a small piece but it's enough to give the information that it's out there."

Gina enjoys her weekly read

Gina said she looked forward to her Chronicle particularly for the Memory Lane feature.

"I love the Memory Lane page and the thing that's probably most useful is the television timetable," she added. "I value local news very highly, as a lot of people do, and I'd really miss the paper if it wasn't there."

Organist Jean to head up Jubilee celebrations

Jean Martyn with Rotary president Mel Morgan, Lions president Doug Smith, and president of Cannock and District Pam McGauley

BRITAIN'S Got Talent star Jean Martyn will head up a Jubilee celebration in Cannock town centre.

The organist will perform on Saturday, June 2 in a special event organised by Cannock Lions, the Rotary Club and Soroptimists.

It will comprise day of family entertainment with a mix of live acts and records from throughout the Queen's reign being played from the bandstand next to the bowling green.

Lichfield-born Jean, a former Cannock school music teacher, will perform an hour set from midday.

The 60-year-old, who now lives in Brewwood, reached the final of the talent show last year. She said: "I've always been a royalist so am looking forward to this event."

Ponies

"What with the size of Cannock, to not have anything for the Diamond Jubilee would be awful. It's just a great chance for people to get together."

There will be a slideshow of pictures of Cannock from 1952 and face painting and Shetland ponies.

The event takes place from midday until 6.30pm and will be opened by Chase MP Aidan Burley.

Organisers are looking to hear from anyone wishing to get involved on the day, providing music or entertainment, or simply to promote a club or cause. Call Doug Smith on 07771 915020 or at president-cannock-lions@hotmail.co.uk

Rock band in pub gig

THE Rock Dogs are performing at The Winding Wheel, in Heath Hayes on Saturday June 2. The local band play the covers from the likes of Kings of Leon, Kasabian, Stereophonics, The Kinks and Foo Fighters and will be taking to the stage at about 9pm. Entry is free.

Residents questioned on plan to close road

PEOPLE in Burntwood are asking when, now that the Chasewater dam works are complete, will Pool Road be reopened to access the other side of the Country Park?

The answer is that if the County Council has its way, the road will not be reopened to traffic except for residents of Pool Road.

The highways department is seeking to make a Temporary Road Closure Order permanent. This will mean people in Burntwood having to take the circuitous route via the A5 to gain access to the other side of Chasewater.

A consultation will shortly take place. If it is ignored it will be too late and the road will close to vehicles. If it is then the public's request to provide a car park close to the Chasewater railway and the Burntwood Rugby Club must be listened to.

ERIC DRINKWATER
District and Town Councillor for Chase Terrace

System driven to house the most needy

I WOULD like to respond to the May 10 letter about the council's housing allocation policy 'Not so desperate for family homes'.

The writer's name or address was not published so we can't contact them, so I advise them to call the council's allocations team on 01543 462621.

People have always been able to express interest in a Cannock Chase Council property by phone or in person. We also have a mailing list to post adverts out to.

Properties are also available online, but I do understand that not everyone is confident when it comes to the web and many don't have access. The revised Tenants Incentive Scheme wants to target fit and well people living in larger houses who want to move to a one-bed property.

The council has over 2,200 applicants seeking housing within the district and, of these, at least 50 per cent want family-sized accommodation.

Allocation systems are primarily driven to house those in the greatest need. Bungalows, notably, are allocated firstly to those who express an interest and who have a medical or disabled need above those with no such needs. The Scheme, however, aims to provide access to one and two-bed bungalows for those with no medical or disabled needs but who have a desire to move to smaller accommodation.

We urge any tenant living in a property too large for their own needs to consider moving to smaller accommodation. Tenancy services staff are always ready to advise and assist on any matter relating to the allocation of housing, rent or neighbourly disputes or nuisance.

COUNCILLOR FRANK ALLEN
Housing Portfolio Leader

Very lucky to have served community

I CONSIDER myself a very lucky person, that I had the opportunity to serve my community for the last eight years on Cannock Chase District Council.

They say things happen for a reason, and so I shall pick myself up and get on with my life. There are lots of other ways to serve I'm sure.

I shall continue with my support of Koncas and life in the village of Norton Canes. May I take this opportunity to thank all my supporters who took time out of what must be busy lives to give me their support on the day, and braved the awful weather too.

A big thanks to you all.

Bankers have faith in a right to profit

RECENT election results around the globe, suggest the coming battles will be democracy versus the bankers' diktat.

The wish of the people will be countered by those who do the bankers' bidding.

A longing for economic investment, will be met by stark warnings that the world is living beyond its means. Reality is, the bankers and their profits are living beyond our means, hence the stockpiles of debt.

Debt is only future profit awaiting a return.

Profit itself is only limited to a narrow economic and historical epoch.

Bankers believe they have a divine right to profit, but that faith will be shattered when future profit fails to materialise.

Thanks after election

I WOULD like to thank all of the people who elected me to represent them in Hednesford North on May 3. It is a great honour and I promise to do my best and to work with my fellow Labour councillors to continue to improve our town and district. I will be holding monthly surgeries, with my Labour colleagues, on the first Saturday of each month at Hednesford library at 10am.

Is this really the Best of?

RE: Peter Rhodes column, May 3 and people with terminal illnesses.

Mr Rhodes has a point of view, but it doesn't take into account people who have hospice care.

Here, many often find that realisation of life in their last days.

"God-botherers" as he calls them, may not get it right for everyone, but at least we have thought about it.

If this really is the "Best of Peter Rhodes" perhaps it is time for a new approach.

Plea for information on TV comedy show

I WOULD like to know all that is possible to know about the Last of the Summer Wine series of shows i.e. how many of the original actors/actresses are still living or left surviving after that series finished. For instance, who played Pearl, Howard's wife in the whole run of the Summer Wine.

Who played Thora Hird's daughter and her daughter's husband? Did Auntie Wainwright, Jean Alexander, once have a regular part on Coronation Street?

Did Kathy Staff once have a full time part on Crossroads (Nora Batty on Summer Wine)?

Thief kicked out of court for abuse of prosecutor

Plum line in clothing logos

Aidan Burley meets Plum Logo co-directors Viv and Graham Holton

MP Aidan Burley called in on a Hednesford business to see how it has survived and thrived.

Plum Logo, a promotional clothing and embroidery company in Keys Park Road, has increased sales year on year since its inception in 2006. It has moved to larger premises and has now invested £40,000 on another embroidery machine as orders grow.

Mr Burley said: "To increase sales year on year, even during tough economic times, is testament to the sheer hard work and dedication of the management."

A METAL thief was kicked out of court after swearing at a prosecutor. He was banished from his trial then went on the run.

Samuel Cope, aged 20, of Lichfield Road, Burntwood, was sent from his burglary trial at Cannock magistrates court after abusing both the prosecutor and one of the witnesses as he took the stand to give evidence.

He was later called back but failed to appear. His accomplice Mark Inston, 19, of Shire Ridge, Walsall Wood, narrowly escaped being kicked out of court after calling the prosecutor "stupid". Both were found guilty of raiding a former school.

The court heard the pair had entered the former Westwood School in Blithbury, near Rugeley, in October to steal metal including radiators, fridges and chairs.

Tattooing

When police captured them just minutes after they drove away in Cope's van, the items were found with the labels still on.

Cope had originally denied the charge and said they had just found the items by the side of the road. He said they had been out "tattooing" - collecting scrap metal.

Evidence given at the trial by police identified footprints from both men.

Cope and Inston were each given a 12-month community order and told to carry out 150 hours of unpaid work.

Also charged, but found not guilty was Tyson Price, 22 of Long Lane Caravan Park, Walsall.

Health and safety win

A CANNOCK company has won an award for its health and safety standards. The Equipment Solutions and Power Systems divisions of Finning UK won the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents Sir George Earle Trophy in its annual occupational health and safety awards.

Burning Desire?

Stock is piled high at Lomas's store, from hams to tinned peas and even oil lamps

Revellers take part in a parade past Grant's Cycle Shop

Chasetown High Street in a picture believed to date back to the late 1930s

This gem shows Chasetown High Street during the 1920s

Grant's Cycle Shop, located in Chasetown High Street

Days when Chasetown was like a foreign land

CHASETOWN High Street was once a hive of activity and was the main shopping street for the villages that make up Burntwood Town as we now call it.

In those days, except to perhaps visit a shop that stocked goods not found in your own village, or to go to work in the colliery, Chasetown was almost a foreign land to those who lived in Burntwood, Chase Terrace or Boney Hay.

Born in Burntwood village myself, I knew no-one in Chasetown until I went to the senior school which spread a wider net than our local junior schools.

I had relatives living in Chasetown I had never even heard of, such was the way of village life until more recent times. The tribal instinct is still there in many folk who lived here before the house building boom of the 1960s. Two of the photos show Grant's cycle shop in High Street.

By Ron Bradbury

Many will remember the Grant brothers, who also had a motor garage in Queen Street. One photo shows part of a parade passing the shop, and the reveller seems to be dressed with false limbs hanging around their neck. Perhaps this is a parody of wearing a Coat of Arms, and this is a Coat of Legs!

Two other photos show the top end of the High Street and the horse and carts are a reminder of how things used to be before the motor car choked the street.

The bottom of the High Street shows Sanders Cycle Shop on the left. It is still trading today, making it one of the oldest established businesses in the area.

The other photos show typical High Street shops. One later became a Co-Op and has a selection of clothing in the window. The other shop is Lomas's, piled high with everything from hams, tinned peas to oil lamps of all types.

How different this must have been to today's stroll around the supermarket pushing a trolley.

The boom has long gone for the High Street as flats and such like are replacing the shop buildings.

Soon it will be just another street like any other, with no redeeming features at all.

Outside the long-established shop Sanders Cycles

Clothing adorns the window of the High Street Co-Op store

Actress Founder member is awarded certificate

CANNOCK WI

THE spring Council meeting at Stafford was very interesting with speakers Marion Armstrong and former Emmerdale and Brookside actress Julie Peasgood, who answered lots of questions.

SFWI are holding a big event on Thursday, August 16 from 10am to 4pm at the County Show Ground.

The summer celebration will have more than 40 stalls and many different activities to suit all families. Entrance is £4 and £1 per child.

The Group meeting at Shreshill featured the Brewood Singers and a very nice refreshment table. At the April meeting, birthday greetings were given to Nadia Rowley and Elizabeth Attfield.

This month's cookery group are cooking fish/chicken and plum soufflé.

Two nominations for the committee were proposed and accepted, while president Stella Winfield was re-elected. Tricia Logan and Linda Smith were welcomed on to the committee.

Five ladies had been given complimentary tickets to a Thornton's chocolate evening. They won the raffle and came first with their artistic cake/egg decorating.

Past president Del gave a talk on wining a bursary for Denman College and the morning ended with fish and chip lunch courtesy Longford Fish Bar.

With their certificates are; back, from left: Jean Woollett, president Margaret Porter, Gay Whitlock and Heather Williams. Seated is founder member Helen Dawson

AT THE AGM, president Margaret Porter was re-elected and the new committee was formed. Cindy Bevan won the Helen Dawson Rose Bowl for the second year running.

Long-service certificates were presented to founder member Helen Dawson, to Heather Williams, Gay Whitlock and Jean Woollett. A posthumous certificate for Marge Cooper was gifted to her family.

Margaret Beardmore, project co-ordinator for the Inland Waterways Association gave a presentation on the voluntary work done to improve the Trent & Mersey canal. To celebrate the WI's 66th birthday, Denise Kendal demonstrated Middle Eastern dance, followed by a buffet and a birthday cake, made by Brereton's Betty Watkins.

ETCHING HILL WI

Twenty members enjoyed a skittles night at the Hen House, Hednesford. In June, the WI will celebrate the Diamond Jubilee.

Chairman again takes role

RETIRING chairman Chris Gooch was not present at the AGM, but had earlier consented to take office for the coming year.

Other members present also agreed to fill the vacant posts.

Last year ran quite

CANNOCK & DISTRICT MEN'S PROBUS CLUB

smoothly with a full programme of speakers and visits. The current year has a comprehensive list of outings, while guest speakers will entertain members at formal indoor meetings.

For more contact either Chris Gooch, chairman, on 01543 504721, Peter Arnold, activities, on 01543 578896 or Alec Mitchell, publicity,

Come and join us plea by ramblers

THE Chase & District Ramblers are off on a moderate eight-mile walk at Eyam in Derbyshire this Sunday (May 27). Departure time is 8.30am from Hedsnesford rail station car park, in Anglesy Street. The group will follow this with two walks on Wednesday (May 30).

The first, an easy five-mile walk along the canals and the Chase, departs from Milford Common at 10am, while Rugeley Trent Valley Station is the meeting point for a four-to-five-mile walk at Colton from 7.30pm.

New walkers are always welcome. Call 01889 586168.

Siobhan Knight is getting ready for the ad campaign

Babe Siobhan is revving up for campaign

A BIKER babe from Rugeley is gearing up for a change in direction as a star of a new advertising campaign.

Siobhan Knight will follow in the footsteps of a host of famous faces after making it on to this year's Bennetts Babes Squad.

The campaign is fronted by Hollyoaks and Dancing on Ice star Jorgie Porter and they are among a group of eight biking beauties to act as the face of Bennetts - a bike insurance firm - for the next 12 months.

The 25-year-old model will now act as an official ambassador for the company, meeting bikers at events across the country.

Previous models for the company have included such luminaries as The Only Way is Essex stars Lauren Pope and Maria Fowler, as well as Big Brother 10 winner Sophie Reade.

Siobhan said: "I'm so happy to have been picked for the squad, as I know from attending the castings that the competition was tough."

Zumba marathon is boost to charity

Zumba instructor Francesca D'Angelo, Suzanne Newell from SNAP and one of the children from the charity group

CANNOCK'S Special Needs Adventure Playground is quids in thanks to a fundraising zumbathon.

Francesca D'Angelo hosts regular zumba sessions on Thursday nights, from 6.30 to 7.30pm at the Old Soldiers Club in Anglesey Street, Hednesford. She held a marathon 90-minute session there to raise money for the SNAP the Special Needs Adventure Playground in Pye Green Road. A total of £713 was raised and Francesca handed over the sum to the charity's manager Suzanne Newell.

Francesca said: "I would like to say a big thanks to all my Thursday evening participants who donated money from entry, raffle tickets and sponsor forms."

"I am amazed at the success of the Zumbathon and I will be holding another event sometime in the summer."

Traffic slump on M6 Toll

THE M6 Toll has racked up another £41m of losses as the number of vehicles using the road continues to slump.

Operator Midland Expressway's annual report for 2011 shows that toll revenue fell by seven per cent to £55.9m in 2011. The company made a pre-tax loss of £41.6m, down from a £49.1m loss in 2010.

Attempts to recover falling revenue by increasing toll prices in March last year were a failure. Fees have since been increased again to £5.50 for cars and £11 for lorries.

With the latest phase of improvement work on the M6, speed restrictions and disruption is expected to see some customers return to the M6 Toll. But Midland Expressway admits it faces greater competition once the improvement work is completed.

As a result of its current trading, the company says it intends to impose a wage freeze on its staff when the current pay deal expires next month.

Midland Expressway chief executive Tom Fanning said: "Like many businesses in the United Kingdom, the M6 Toll has been impacted by ongoing weak economic conditions."

Traffic volumes have fallen by 10.2 per cent, with just 13 million vehicles using the 27-mile pay-as-you-go motorway.

thechronicle Couple mark seven decades of love

Platinum couple Ted and Edie Hancox, of Burntwood

The happy couple on their wedding day in 1942

A BURNTWOOD couple have celebrated 70 years of married bliss. Ted and Edie Hancox say the secret of their long relationship is 'doing everything together'.

The pair met when Ted was larking about on an upturned barrel outside Four Oaks Station in Sutton Coldfield in 1938. Edie, who arrived to collect some coal, told him: "I've seen better tricks in the circus."

They marked their platinum anniversary on Saturday

(May 19). Ted served in the Navy before spending 31 years down the mines, while Edie worked as a nurse at the now demolished St Matthew's Hospital in Burntwood. They both belonged to Burntwood Gardening Guild.

Now aged 88, the couple have two sons, Tony, 62, a retired bricklayer, and Robert, 59, steward at St Matthew's sports and social club. They also have two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Firm lands mining deal

CANNOCK-based Caterpillar distributor Finning UK is to start providing vehicles for underground mining.

The company already provides vehicles for open-cast mining and the move is a significant expansion for the firm.

The underground mining launch follows months of planning and engineer training, following the acquisition by Caterpillar acquisition of Bucyrus in 2011.

It will cover dealers across the whole of the UK and Ireland to support all new Caterpillar and Bucyrus underground mining equipment.

Expertise

Gary Agnew, director of equipment solutions for Finning UK, said: "When we acquired the dealership for the new Caterpillar mining range in January 2012, we initially focused resources on developing our engineering expertise to support the new surface mining equipment."

"Following significant investment in underground mining training, tooling and parts, we are now in a position to support existing products and the rollout of new Caterpillar products into the UK."

Finning UK, based in Watling Street, is a division of Finning International, one of the world's largest distributors of Caterpillar equipment and power systems. Its main operation is based in Cannock.

Finning UK employs about 1,000 people and has an annual turnover of £318 million.

Work under way on new £100,000 artificial pitch

WORK on a new state-of-the-art all-weather pitch at Rugeley Leisure Centre has begun this week. The work started on Monday (May 21) and should take weight weeks to complete.

When completed by the middle of July, the £100,000 3G artificial surface will be accessible to local schools as well as being available for community use. Mini and junior league football teams will play on the new surface at weekends.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Cannock Chase Council's culture and sport leader, said: "The new artificial pitch will be very much welcomed by schools and sports clubs in the district."

Mother took daughter's ring and sold it on for £30

A WOMAN from Rugeley stole her daughter's £499 engagement ring and sold it for £30 at a local shop, a court heard.

Cannock magistrates heard that Maxine Stanley, who shares her home in Lovett Court with her daughter, took the white gold engagement ring between March 13 and 16.

Stanley, aged 39, pleaded guilty to taking Serena Marklew's ring.

Prosecutor Alka Marston told the court that Stanley's daughter bought the ring from H Samuel in Cannock before splitting up with her fiancé.

Ms Marston said that Ms Marklew kept the ring under her bed in a box for sentimental reasons.

When she discovered the ring was missing, Ms Marklew checked the house, but there was no sign of forced entry.

The court heard that a police constable, who knew the defendant, saw Stanley at a gold exchange centre in Rugeley carrying out a transaction.

The Pc made enquiries and was told by the shopkeeper that he had given her £30 for it.

Theft - Maxine Stanley

Care plan go-ahead

CONTROVERSIAL plans that will see children's centres in Cannock and Stafford hand over their daytime care provision to the private and independent sector have been given the go-ahead.

The county council insists it will save £800,000. The plans will be in place within 18 months after they were agreed by the council's cabinet.

Childcare at Stafford Children's Centre and Cannock Children's Centre, in addition to four other centres in the county, will now be opened up to the independent, private or voluntary sectors.

Anxiety

Ms Marston said when the Pc heard a ring had been stolen, it was shown to Ms Marklew who identified it as her own. Stanley was interviewed by police and admitted she had taken it, saying she had "no idea what was going through her head".

Defending, Neil Gerrity said Stanley suffered with emotional problems.

"She suffers with agoraphobia, has increased levels of anxiety and suffers panic attacks," said Mr Gerrity.

As well as theft, Stanley pleaded guilty to breaching a previous community order she received for shoplifting in Morrisons last year.

Stanley was given a new 12-month community order and ordered to pay £240 - £50 as a financial penalty, £60 probation costs, a £15 victim surcharge, separate costs for the theft of £85, and £30 compensation.

Restaurant refit is completed by firm

A RUGELEY firm has completed a £600,000 re-fit of a Malaysian restaurant next to the Olympic Park in London. Kribensis Leisure Contracts, based on the Towers Business Park, was called in by the owners of Jom Makan who are preparing for a major increase in trade during the Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The 130-seat restaurant is on the upper dining terrace at the Westfield Centre, Stratford, which overlooks the Olympic Park. It has been re-designed in a combination of traditional and modern Malaysian style with outside balcony seating. Sister company GMP Design is also carrying out interior work at the Rex Bar near the stadium.

Kribensis owner Neil Morten said: "It's encouraging that the impact of the 2012 Olympics is reaching far outside London and into Staffordshire."

NEWS
in briefPolice in witness plea on burglary

POLICE are appealing for witnesses following an aggravated burglary in Burntwood.

At about 10.15pm on Friday, May 18, two men entered a home in Cedar Close and demanded money. One of the occupants was assaulted and two mobile phones and a quantity of cash was taken.

One of the offenders is described as mixed race, approximately 6ft tall and of stocky build. He was wearing a black jacket.

The other was white, about 5ft 6ins tall with a stocky/muscular build. He was also wearing a black jacket, blue jeans and white trainers. Both men wore balaclavas.

Anyone with information should call Staffordshire Police on 101.

Students looking to dance their way into record books

Free meal offer if families dine out

FAMILIES are invited to celebrate Great Grandparents Day at a Cannock pub this weekend.

The Chase Gate, Wolverhampton Road, Wedges Mills, is offering a free meal to great grandparents from 2-5pm on Sunday (May 27) when all four generations eat together.

General manager Lynn Gelder said: "Everyone leads very busy lives so it's often hard to see elderly relatives, especially as many people have moved away from their home town.

"But it's important to keep in touch.

"We know many great grandparents who often dine here with their families so we wanted to give people the chance to say thank you and celebrate with them.

"National Great Grandparents Day is about getting families together and making sure people still make time for family occasions."

Dancers take part in the record attempt in Rugeley

STUDENTS in Rugeley have helped to take part in a world record dance attempt to mark the beginning of the Olympic Torch's journey.

Led by Rachel Allen, from Sundance School of Dance, pupils from Fair Oak Academy joined in the fun at the town's leisure centre with other dance students. It was part of a world record challenge attempt involving other groups across the world.

Rachel, aged 30, said: "To help mark the arrival of the Olympic torch everyone in the UK and across the world joined together to try and beat the record for the largest simultaneous dance routine.

Inspired

"It went really well with people enjoying it. The challenge was for them to dance for five minutes and it was contemporary dancing."

The event was organised by Big Dance 2012 - a group helping young people learn a new dance inspired by the Olympics.

Pupils between Years 8 and 11 at Fair Oak Academy took part in the routine at the leisure centre, at Burnhill Lane.

Sundance School of Dance and Fair Oak Academy pupils during their efforts

The results of whether they were successful in helping others to set a new world record will be revealed soon.

The Sundance School of Dance aims to further the art of dancing in providing youngsters with a chance to experience and enjoy it.

Bosses say it aims to be a place where anyone can learn to dance while also giving people the chance to express themselves through something new. Adult classes are also available.

The dance school offers classes in Freestyle, Rock 'n' Roll, Ballroom and Latin. There are also cheerleading and hip-hop options.

Volunteers needed for 'Bloody Steps' clean-up

VOLUNTEERS are needed to carry out a clean-up at the so-called Bloody Steps in Brindley Bank, Rugeley this weekend. Members of the Inland Waterways Association are carrying out the clean-up on Sunday (May 27).

A historic tramway, used to transport coal to Brindley Bank pumping station to fire the engines, has been discovered and a group spokesman said one of the main tasks was to try to uncover the remainder of the track.

Anyone wishing to lend a hand will be made welcome. The group will meet at the bottom of the steps at 10am. All equipment is provided. For more details, call project co-ordinator Margaret Beardsmore on 07581 794111.

Member of car key theft gang given jail sentence

A GANG of car-key burglars raided homes across Staffordshire and the West Midlands to steal high value vehicles, a court heard.

Homes in Rugeley, Lichfield and Kings Bromley were among those targeted. Some victims watched helplessly as their prized motors were driven away.

Jailed - Phillip Thompson

So far, though, only one gang member, Phillip Thompson, has been tracked down, after police found one of the stolen vehicles, an Audi TT Quattro, in Burntwood.

In it was found a balaclava with DNA that matched up to Thompson, a convicted robber who was out of jail on licence, said Mr Anthony Potter, prosecuting.

Thompson, aged 33, of Lichfield Road, Stafford was jailed for 63 months after admitting conspiracy to burgle and conspiracy to steal motor vehicles.

Mr Michael Garrett, defending, said Thompson had a fascination with motor vehicles.

Spree

Judge Paul Glenn told him: "The fact you get a thrill from driving high powered and high quality vehicles is no consolation to them."

The gang's spree began on October 22 with the theft of a silver Audi TT worth £18,000 from Featherstone while a woman was alone in the house.

Thompson's involvement began on November 14 after the theft of a £22,000 BMW from Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire. It and the silver Audi were spotted by CCTV travelling in convoy down the M42, with Thompson in one of them.

Thompson was arrested at the address in Stafford where he was living.

Garden rules

KEN Whittaker will talk to Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society on the dos and don'ts in your garden next week. The talk is at 7.30pm on Thursday, May 31 at the Salem, in High Street. Admission is £1 including refreshments.

Teddy bear picnic will mark Jubilee occasion

CHILDREN can bring along their teddies - and their picnics - for a free family feast to mark the Queen's Jubilee. The Big Teddy Bears Picnic takes place at the Museum of Cannock Chase, Valley Road, Hednesford, from 11am to 2pm on Sunday, June 3.

It is being held on the field behind the museum and will feature party music from Greenwood Studios, face painting, balloon modelling, arts and crafts and a bouncy castle.

All the children will receive a special Diamond Jubilee goody bag. There will be a big bear trail inside the venue and a prize for the best fancy dress. Call 01543 464270.

Boarded-up pub put on the market by brewery

A POPULAR Chase pub has been put up for sale. The Globe on East Cannock Road, Hednesford, owned by Punch Taverns, is on the market for £275,000.

It was formerly run by Tracey and Adam Rogers. The couple are now in charge at The Pied Piper in Cannock.

It is listed for sale on the Matthew Phillips Surveyors website as somewhere that will "suit the continuing pub or restaurant operation" but also can offer "development potential for commercial, retail and residential purposes."

Tracey Rogers, aged 45, the former licensee of The Globe along with Adam, said: "It's boarded up now. Punch Taverns told us about six months ago they were selling the place. We then started looking for somewhere else."

Sad

"Punch put a temporary manager in but now it's boarded up."

"We're now at The Pied Piper on Pye Green Road in Cannock," she added.

"I brought two or three of the girls who worked there

The boarded-up Globe pub with me. It's sad we left - we were there for two years."

"Last year punters packed out The Globe as Martin "Wolfie" Adams - the world-ranked number 1 of the British Darts Organisation - paid a visit to the pub. It saw 14 lucky visitors play the top darts player."

The Globe, located on East Cannock Road, puts it on one of the main routes leading from Cannock to the north.

Punch Taverns was unavailable for comment.

Actress backs charity

Back, Emma Tucker, actress Pauline Quirke, Newlife Foundation CEO Sheila Brown, with, front, Esme Tucker, Joel Tucker and Great Barr Co-Op manager Rob Collins

ACTRESS Pauline Quirke was on hand to support a link-up between a national supermarket and a national children's charity based in Cannock.

The Midlands Co-Operative Society Ltd has signed a two-year fundraising deal with the Newlife Foundation which raises money for disabled children.

Newlife's boss Sheila Brown OBE asked former Birds of a Feather and Emmerdale actress Pauline to the official announcement in Great Barr and the 52-year-old star offered to help with the partnership launch.

Jobs go as card shop shuts

NEARLY 3,000 jobs are to be axed after the administrators of Clinton Cards announced plans to close 350 of its Birthdays stores, - including one in Cannock - and roughly 200 Clintons-branded outlets. The move will see 2,800 full and part-time staff lose their jobs. The ailing high street retailer, has 784 stores and employs more than 8,000 staff in total.

thechronicle Exclusive jewellery in vogue at wedding shop

A JEWELLERY designer and a national magazine have combined to give a Cannock bridal shop a shot in the arm. Weddings Etc, in High Green Court, stocks an exclusive range of Ruby James jewellery. The unique pieces are made with semi precious stones, crystals and sterling silver and celebrity wearers include Dame Kelly Holmes, Jane McDonald and Michelle Collins. Now, the designer is being featured in the latest edition of the trend-setting magazine Vogue. Kim Street who has run Weddings Etc since December, said: "We fought off strong competition to be chosen to stock the beautiful jewellery and we're pleased to offer such high profile items to the local community."

Museum goes wild at art

Ruth Sharman and Rachel Ward check out the David Spencer exhibition at the Museum of Cannock Chase

WILDLIFE-themed artwork has gone on display at the Museum of Cannock Chase. The work of David Spencer has gone on show in the museum's coffee shop.

Mr Spencer's paintings feature a series of acrylic works on Welsh slate mostly of birds that can be seen on Cannock Chase. They are and inspired by the artist's regular visits to the area. The exhibition, entitled Wildlife Revealed, will be on show at the attraction in Valley Road, Hednesford, until July 1.

Mr Spencer's work has previously gone on show at the museum in 2010 and has been accepted at the National Exhibition of Wildlife on The Wirral and The Wildlife Art Society International in Cheltenham.

Annette French, museum services chief, said: "David's beautiful and delicate bird paintings are a delightful addition to our changing coffee shop exhibition programme."

The Museum of Cannock Chase is open daily from 11am to 5pm. Entry is free.

Jobless figures see a reduction

THE NUMBER of people claiming jobseeker's allowance in Cannock has fallen. Unemployment across the UK dropped by 45,000 in the last three months to a figure of 2.63 million.

In the West Midlands, the jobless total was down by 19,000 to 228,000. Figures up to March showed that in Cannock, those claiming jobseeker's allowance fell by 90 to 2,339 or 3.8 per cent of the working population.

South Staffordshire had 96 fewer claimants at 1,711, equating to 2.6 per cent of the working population.

John Lamb, spokesman for Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce, said: "Businesses in Cannock and the rest of Staffordshire are busting a gut to find new growth opportunities both at home and abroad."

"We do not need to be told by government ministers to get on the plane, go and sell things overseas, as Mr Pickles did. The Government should stop complaining about the work ethic of businesses and move more quickly to scrap the red tape that is holding it back."

There has been some positive employment news in the county of late. An extra 1,100 workers have been taken on by high-technology manufacturing employers such as Alstom and JCB. It means the number of people working in the sector is up 45 per cent, to around 2,400.

Accolade for firm's MD

THE MANAGING director of a Cannock-based business has won a top award. Richard Close, of Briggs Equipment, was a winner in the large company category at the Institute of Directors' West Midlands director of the year awards. The judges were particularly impressed with his management style, his commitment to staff and passion for customer service. Briggs, which supplies forklift trucks made by Yale, has its headquarters and main storage facility at Orbital Way.

Snow White hit followed by towering festive show

PANTO favourite Jack and the Beanstalk will be this year's festive offering at the Prince of Wales Centre in Cannock.

The Church Street venue has again teamed up with PMA Productions to put on the show, which was last staged in 2006. It follows on from last year's smash Snow White, which broke box office records.

Ticket prices have been frozen for a limited period with any bookings made before August 1 costing the same as 2011.

Jack and the Beanstalk starts with a Christmas Eve show at 2.30pm. Performances follow every day from Boxing Day to New Year's Eve at 2.30pm and 7.30pm.

Ticket prices are £13.50, £11.50 concessions or £42 for a family. Call 01543 578762 for more details.

There is a host of entertainment before the Christmas show, including Let's Hang On – a tribute to Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons on Saturday, June 16. Hits will include Sherry, Walk Like a Man and Rag Doll. Tickets are £16.50 for a 7.30pm show.

Talented artist Joe Longthorne follows on Saturday, June 30 from 7.30pm.

He has spent more than three decades in the business since winning Search for A Star in 1981 and has an extensive repertoire of voices. Tickets are £22.

REVIEW The best of British

Best of British by Cannock Wood and Gentleshaw Music Society, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock
CWAGMS rang the changes with this year's summer production in a banner-waving, street-party-themed depiction of their take on the best in British entertainment.

One is always moved by the group's infectious sense of enthusiasm, enjoyment and honesty. Humour is also a big factor on any CWGMS bill and this show had its fair share.

There were a number of solo items worthy of note while one of the high spots was the rendition by the mother and daughters-trio of Charlotte, Emily and Flo Chambers of the Christmas Number One Wherever You Are.

Dogs have their day in beauty spot canine show

The dog that looks most like its owner prize given by John Williams and Chris Harris, of Guide Dogs for the Blind

HUNDREDS attend a canine awareness day at Chasewater Country Park.

Lichfield District Council's parks team invited dog lovers to a Wet Noses and Waggy Tails event at the beauty spot last Sunday (May 20).

Roughly 500 people, many of whom brought their four-legged friends, came to the event to see and take part in the dog agility displays and novelty classes.

Handsome

On the day, 75 dogs were entered into the displays, which included obedience, agility and flyball, heelwork to music, and greyhound training.

Many owners also entered their dogs into the classes, including prettiest bitch, most handsome dog, waggiest tail, best party trick, and the dog that looks most like its owner – the most popular class on the day.

Councillor Val Richards, Lichfield District Council's cabinet member for leisure services, said: "The day was a great success with hundreds of people descending on Chasewater Country Park for this huge celebration of dogs. The displays drew in the crowds and everyone had lots of fun taking part and watching the classes."

Prettiest bitch winner

The most handsome dog

The canine awareness day also included dog micro-chipping for £5, a guided walk especially focused on dog walking in the country park, stalls, dog photography by Codsall Photographic, and refreshments.

There was also a celebrity guest appearance by Bobby, who starred as Toto in The Wizard of Oz at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre.

Rugeley artist John Malia is gearing up for his exhibition

A RUGELEY artist whose work has been exhibited at the Royal Academy in London is gearing up for his latest show. Wonderland Rising is the name of John Malia's exhibition at the Ancient High House in Greengate Street, Stafford. It will run from June 2 to 30 and will showcase Mr Malia's take on "mystical landscapes" across the county.

He said: "I'm used to painting a lot of atmospheric paintings. They can be beautiful and tranquil and some can be sinister-looking and show a dark side."

Mr Malia, who was born in Birmingham, has been painting since the age of two. He studied at what is now the Midlands Arts Centre.

His landscape paintings have been exhibited all over the UK at venues including the Royal Academy.

Civil servant used phoney NI numbers to steal £5k

A CIVIL servant from Cannock stole more than £5,000 of taxpayers' money, using phoney national insurance numbers, a judge heard.

Shamsul Islam, a processor at the town's Department of Works and Pensions' centre, used the numbers to send bogus payments into his own account.

The defendant, who was trusted with access to the computer system, used the ruse five times over a five month period, Mr Ben Close, prosecuting, told Stafford Crown Court.

He was dismissed last year, not because of the thefts, but due to poor work performance. It was only after he had left that he was found to have taken a total of £5,022.

Curfew

Islam, aged 29, of Wolverhampton Road, admitted theft and was sentenced to a 10 month jail sentence, suspended for two years.

But Judge John Wait also slapped on a five months curfew, ordered Islam to do 200 hours unpaid community work and to pay £5,022 compensation.

"This theft could only have been carried out by someone who had an intimate knowledge of the system," the judge told him. Mr Close said the thefts began on August 25 when Islam diverted £964 in to his bank account.

There were further amounts of £1,047 in September, £981 in October, £1,047 in November and £981 in January last year.

Islam had fabricated national insurance numbers usually allocated to foreign nationals, logged into the system with his unique pass number and password and his staff card inserted in to the keyboard.

Mr Talbir Singh, defending, said: "This was not a highly sophisticated theft from an employer. There was no great ingenuity creating these false national insurance numbers plucked out of the air."

"It would always have ended up being discovered."

The welcoming interior of the Thai Restaurant, Wolverhampton Road

The Thai Restaurant is now celebrating three years in business

Laura, left, on her first visit, tucks in with Mel at the Thai Restaurant

Tucked-away Thai treats make hot news for diners

The Thai Restaurant, 1-3 Wolverhampton Road, Cannock OWNER Don Kana admitted he was taking a gamble when he opened up Cannock's first Thai restaurant. Three years on and the business is thriving, having plugged a much-needed gap in the market.

We were invited to sample the delights of the Thai Restaurant as it celebrates its third birthday, and it is easy to see why it has become a popular venue. Tucked away on the Wolverhampton Road, it looks inviting and the smells inside are certainly enticing.

With a fresh, clean interior and modern decor, diners are assured of a cheerful welcome, while the friendly staff are always happy to talk customers through the menu, which is varied, not too pricey and has had 15 new dishes added. The soft background music adds to the ambience.

The seating arrangements are personal and intimate, ideal for those wishing to enjoy a romantic meal.

My dining partner and I had Thai prawn crackers and sweet chilli dip brought straight to our table, and that was before we ordered our starter of Thai hors d'oeuvres; prawn tempura, grilled chicken satay, minced prawn and chicken on french bread, vegetable spring rolls, Thai fish cakes and petite cups, with sweet chilli, and creamy peanut dips. We also tried one of the additions to the starter menu, curry puffs, curry in a light pastry, beautifully presented and delicious.

For the main, I tried the Kun chuee - king prawns dressed in creamy red curry sauce and egg fried rice. Dining partner Laura opted for the gaeng ped yang - roast duck cooked in red curry paste with coconut milk and pineapple, noodles. Both were full of flavours and the duck was spot-on. Thai Pancake followed with Thai custard inside and ice cream with raspberry and toffee sauce, very light and a lovely finish to the meal.

For Laura, this was her first visit to a Thai restaurant, but certainly not her last. She said: "I enjoyed every single mouthful. Top class. This is a hidden gem, more people need to discover this quaint, unique restaurant"

Owner Don said he was happy to have stuck to his guns after a difficult first year. "The first year was hard and the second year was better although we did go a bit quiet last September. It has now picked up again. I think a lot of people are scared to try something different, especially the younger generation. That's why I have added 15 new dishes to my menu and reduced the cost of my Lunch and Early Bird menus to tempt all who may be hesitant in trying something different."

Traders in mood for festivities

HEDNESFORD Traders are gearing up for the town's big Jubilee celebrations.

Festivities will take place around the town and in the park from 10am to 5pm on Saturday, June 2. Most of the celebrations will centre around Market Place, where there will be stalls, games, an illusion show, penalty shoot-out, golf putting competition and a display of exotic animals.

A charity football match will kick off proceedings, followed by the Hednesford's Got Talent competition and a skating skills contest. There will also be period vehicles on display.

The Royal British Legion will lead a parade through the town, involving standard bearers, Staffordshire Regimental Association, Hednesford Army Cadet Force and the 1st Hednesford Scouts.

At noon they will gather in Market Square for a ceremony, followed by a release of 200 balloons.

Couple open garden for all seasons to the public

SCORES of people turned out to an open day at a Cheslyn Hay garden which has continued to thrive despite the rain.

Husband and wife Mary Marshall and David Blundell, opened their garden up to the public on Sunday (May 20) for charity as part of the National Gardens Scheme.

The colourful oasis at Dorset House, in Station Street, has been designed for peace and tranquility.

The scheme's organisers describe it as an "inspirational plantaholic's country garden with many unique features".

It has some unusual rhododendrons, several shrubs and perennials and some beautiful clematis-covered arches.

Former businesswoman Mary and retired Cannock police officer David call their half-acre of land an all-seasons garden.

Mary said: "The garden has been full of people. It's always nice to talk to them about my passion. Since we're both retired we spend five to six hours in the garden every day, starting around March.

"The cold and wet has not been a problem for us as our soil loves it - in fact we can't grow things like lavender which needs dry conditions."

The garden will open to the public again on June 24 from 10am-5pm, and July 22 from 11.30am-5pm. Admission is £3.

Apple tree planted at care home

RESIDENTS at a Great Wyrley care home are helping to leave a lasting legacy for future generations as part of their Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

Lakeview Care Home, in Stafford Road, will plant a tree as part of the Queen's Jubilee Woods project - a scheme to plant six million trees across the country to mark the milestone.

The crab apple tree will be planted within the grounds of the home tomorrow (Friday) by new care home manager Gill Hall. She said: "We're very proud that we're leaving a lasting legacy for future generations."

The home's Jubilee celebrations will also include street parties and live entertainment.

Tracey York, of Alpha Care Homes - which owns Lakeview Care Home - said: "It is good to think that something planted to mark 60 years of the Queen's reign could still be growing strong in another 60 years."

Nailed on for Euros

Rachel Richardson from Twinklemytoes wants people to 'get their toes out for the lads' during Euro 2012

A CANNOCK beautician is urging girls to get their toes out for the lads during Euro 2012 and roar England on to glory. Rachel Richardson has just set up mobile Minx service Twinklemytoes. The 39-year-old specialises in offering the new Minx craze for toes and will be applying a St George design for the Euro 2012 tournament.

Rachel believes the St George flag design will prove popular among patriotic girls who want to show their support for the national team. She said: "What better way to show your support for the England team than to have a St George flag Minx design applied to your toes."

Twinklemytoes is also gearing up for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations by offering a Union Flag Minx design. To make an appointment, call 07973 144123.

Appeal court judges set to rule on claim for damages

THREE appeal court judges are being asked to make a decision that will affect a Cannock woman's battle for compensation over a motorbike accident.

Tracey Evans after she was injured riding pillion on her own machine with an uninsured driver at the controls.

by Lisa O'Brien

Ms Evans, of Meadow Way, Heath Hayes, suffered serious injuries when she went with her friend, Adam Cockayne, on a trip across three counties to visit a bike garage in 2004.

They agreed to share the driving, but Mr Cockayne collided head-on with a lorry on the way home.

In 2009, a judge ruled that because she had "caused or permitted" her friend to drive her Suzuki motorbike when he was not insured to do so, she had lost any right to compensation.

Violate

After an initial appeal court hearing, the case was referred to the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg, where judges ruled that an "automatic and arbitrary" ban on her receiving damages would violate European law. Her case is now back before the Court of Appeal in London, for a second time, after the European Court gave its view on the rights and wrongs of the dispute last year.

Three appeal court judges are being asked to rule on the significance of the European Court decision and whether English and European rules on the issue can be reconciled.

She had shared the driving with Mr Cockayne under "drive any vehicle" insurance arrangements, and her legal team insists she had no idea his insurance had lapsed.

Insurance company, Equity Claims Ltd, argues that Ms Evans should get nothing as she allowed her friend to drive her bike when he was not insured.

Pub trio will go to Hell and back for challenge

STAFF from a Rugeley pub are preparing to go to hell and back next weekend – all in the name of charity.

Mark Broadbent, Duncan Ansell and Jordan Ansell, who all work at the Wetherspoons pub The Plaza, on Horsefair, will compete in endurance race Hell Rider in West Wycombe Park on Saturday, June 2.

Labelled as “an eight-hour duathlon of devilish proportions”, Hell Rider sees teams do as many laps of five-kilometre runs and eight-kilometre bike rides as they can within the timeframe.

Each team member must do at least one run and one bike lap and the race is in relay format, so they take it in turns.

The Plaza boys have set themselves a target of eight running laps and eight bike laps between them, which would add up to 104 kilometres in total.

Training

Perhaps wisely pub manager Mark, aged 31, has booked the trio the next day off work.

He said: “I’ve got a feeling it may hurt quite a bit the morning after.”

“We’ve been training for four months and it’d be nice to finish in the top three, but last year’s winners did 23 laps.”

“I’ve never done anything like this before but it looks challenging and quite fun.”

Funds from their adventure will go to cancer charity CLIC Sargent, which is Wetherspoons’ charity of the year.

Visit www.justgiving.com/mark-broadbent0 to donate, or text JDWP99 followed by £1, £2 or £5 to 70070.

Customers praised over fundraising contribution

CUSTOMERS have been praised after an opticians raised more than £150,000 for Guide Dogs for the Blind.

Since 2009, Specsavers branches in both Cannock and Rugeley have helped to contribute to the nationwide fundraising total.

Cannock store director Martin Shaw said: “I’d like to thank everyone who has visited the store and contributed to our pledge.”

Jobs boost as former church to be nursery

A BUSINESSMAN is spending around £30,000 turning a former church into a new children's nursery.

Shaun Wigley, aged 44, has spent around three months converting the old St Michael's Church, in Littleworth Road, Rawnsley and hopes to open it next month, creating at least seven jobs.

Mr Wigley has spent most of his life in the gardening and building trades and thought a day nursery would be a good way to make use of the former place of worship site which has been standing empty for years.

"It's not been occupied for three years," he said. "When we moved in it was a right mess, it was flooded."

Opening

The entrepreneur has set up the new business, called Little Potters Nursery, with his girlfriend Claire Brindley, who, at 33, has spent several years working as a nursery nurse.

Mr Wigley said that he will be looking to start employing around seven members of staff in the coming weeks, ahead of the opening.

The couple want to get the nursery up and running by the end of next month.

"I think there will be at least seven, but there might be more part-time jobs. Or we might employ some agency staff," said Mr Wigley.

Mr Wigley is waiting for an Ofsted visit at the end of this month, when he hopes the inspectors will clear the new business to open. People who would like to find out more about the jobs available should call in at the site.

Board

Mr Wigley added: "They can come up to the site, have a look around and there is a board on the wall with my phone number and email address."

Shaun Wigley, aged 44, outside the former St Michael's Church in Littleworth Road that is being converted into a children's nursery

The former St Michael's Church building was built on the site of the old St John's village hall, in Littleworth Road, in the 1980s.

It was built at a cost of £42,000 and was consecrated by The Rt. Rev. Kenneth Skelton, Bishop of Lichfield, on March 27, 1982.

Old boys back on the ball for charity

The Wolves All Stars line-up led by Mel Eves at the Banks's Stadium before their charity match with Walsall All Stars

WALSALL All Stars and Wolves All Stars helped raise more than £5,000 for charity at the Banks's Stadium last night.

Martin Butler's hat-trick and a goal from Zigor Aranalde cancelled out Tony Dinning's strike as Walsall won 4-1.

CLIC Sargent, Fat Boys and the John Radcliffe Hospital will all benefit from the ticket sales, donations and an auction.

It was organised by Penny Lawrence of CAT Communications, the club's back-of-shirt sponsors, for family friend Mischka Richards who suffers from bone cancer.

The Wolves All Stars – who featured Telford's Adam Proudlock – can raise up to £50,000 a year for charity.

Manager Mel Eves said: "We have to be a bit selective with our games because of availability but we're not going to leave the charities in the lurch."

"Games like this are great and we raised money for three really good causes. We thank Dan Mole (Saddlers' press officer) and everyone at Walsall." Albacete assistant head coach and ex-Walsall star Aranalde, who flew over from Spain especially for the game, added: "It was very good – it's always enjoyable when you play a game of football. It's a great cause and I was playing with friends so it was a great day out. "I got a day off and it was important to come over."

Dinning's classy volley put Wolves ahead after 20 minutes but quickfire goals from Aranalde and Butler fired Walsall ahead.

Treble

Butler, who scored 25 goals in 141 games in two spells for the Saddlers, completed his treble with two in the second half.

Walsall: Green, McCoy, Millard, Polgrave, Angus, Taylor, Keates, Butler, Shearer, Reece, Marsh.

Wolves: Griffiths, Duncombe, Hayward, Dinning, Simkin, Clarkson, Tudor, Jones, Proudlock, Eves, Turner.

A silver lining for trainee solicitor

A TRAINEE solicitor at leading Black Country law firm Higgs & Sons is celebrating after achieving a silver prize in the Birmingham Law Society's annual awards for trainee solicitors.

Adam Maguire achieved the second highest overall marks in his examinations and course work while studying for his legal practice course.

He also received £150 of book tokens at the society's annual meeting in April.

"This is a great achievement and I'm extremely proud to have received the award," he said.

"I worked extremely hard to achieve my results, so it's fantastic to be recognised by the Birmingham Law Society."

Delight

Higgs' graduate trainee programme is one of the best in the region and many of its partners trained with the Brierley Hill-based firm.

Catherine Junor is one and is now the training principal for all new graduates. She said: "Adam's achievements will be celebrated across the firm and we're all delighted for him."

Adam has also been elected as the Birmingham Law Society's education and societies representative for Birmingham Trainee Solicitors Society.

Poorest of the poor

Canals conjure up a welcoming picture of peace and tranquility but many years ago, the Midlands waterways were a very different scene, as TOBY NEAL reports HARDSHIP? Don't try that one with brothers Jim and Joe Edwards. They know what real hardship is all about.

They were born and brought up on a working canal boat and were so poor that they got the strap from their father if they played football in their shoes – because the family couldn't afford to buy new ones.

"Jim and I used to love to play football, so we had an old pair of shoes, and he had the left shoe and I had the right shoe," said 81-year-old Joe. "We were the poorest of the poor. We weren't dressed very well. I had a big hole in my shoes, and my trousers were all ripped."

The entire family of six boys, six girls, and parents Noah and Mary (two other children died as babies), were crammed into two horse-drawn narrowboats, named Spade and Welcome, which plied with their cargoes on the Midland canal system and up to Ellesmere Port and back, working for Midlands and Coast Canal Carriers.

Frozen

All but the last two of the Edwards children were born on the boats. "We were taking wheat, flour, chocolate, foodstuffs from Ellesmere Port to Wolverhampton and Birmingham," said 82-year-old Jim, from Fordhouses, Wolverhampton.

"Once, we were taking an order of tubes from Halesowen to Ellesmere Port, and tied up for the night near Beeston Castle.

"Next morning, the canal was frozen over, and we were stuck there for eight weeks."

Joe, from Oakengates, Telford, chipped in: "We had no food, water, or anything."

They used to sleep top to tail on a hard bench. "Lots of times during the summer we used to sleep on the cargo. We used to get a bag of straw and lie on that," said Jim.

There was a range for cooking. Meals would be cooked on the leading boat, and left on trays on the canal side to be collected as the following boat passed. The contents of the toilet would be emptied into the canal.

"In about 1908, my mother's family lost their father, a Mr Wildy. They lived in Culwell Street, Wolverhampton," said Jim. "He passed on and left seven children. They could not afford to live there and were thrown out of the house by the bailiffs. The two eldest sons got a boat to live and work on, and that's how they came to be on the canal."

Noah Edwards had known Mary when they were both at Walsall Street School in Wolverhampton, and seems to have taken up the canal life when they married.

"We got off and lived in Broad Street in Wolverhampton. It meant we were able to go to school, for what was left of our school days. I made up by going to night school. I got a job after three days, on the railway, as a messenger boy on the Great Western Railway, based at Herbert Street goods yard in Wolverhampton.

I was on the railway for 49 years and nine months," said Jim, who was awarded the British Empire Medal in 1990. As for Joe, he went into factory work.

Welcome appears no longer to exist but Spade and Apollo survive as leisure boats.

A new owner of Spade found a 1930s photo taken at Bunbury locks showing the Edwards family and, thanks to the wonders of the internet, this led to him tracing the surviving members.

Economy boosting firms are rewarded

THREE Black Country businesses have graduated from the Goldman Sachs 10,000 small businesses programme.

The TLC college, Wolverhampton, Vine Trust, Walsall, and the YMCA Black Country Group were in the first Midlands scheme and received their certificates at a dinner in Birmingham.

The programme is designed to boost local economic growth and job creation through practical business education and support to small businesses and social enterprises.

Classes for the second cohort have begun, and recruitment for the third is in progress.

Ranged

The first businesses represented a wide range of sectors, including manufacturing, business services, technology, retail and education.

They ranged in size from £200,000 in turnover to more than £3 million.

TLC college was set up in 1997 and works with businesses and public sector bodies in the city to offer skills and training to economically deprived communities.

The YMCA Black Country Group offers a range of support services.

Hotel raises a glass to its Jubilee celebrations

A PENKRIDGE hotel and restaurant will be putting up the bunting up as it gets set to host five days of celebrations to toast the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The Bridgehouse, at Stonecross, has organised a number of events between Friday June 1 and Tuesday June 5 to celebrate the occasion.

Throughout the celebrations The Bridgehouse will be decked in Union Flag bunting and will be hosting a number of events and offering special deals.

On the Queen's Diamond Jubilee anniversary (June 5) the venue hosts a family day consisting of an all-day barbecue and face painting. Children will get a free dessert with every kids meal ordered.

On the Friday (June 1) diners can enjoy two steaks with trimmings plus a bottle of wine for £22.

Carvery

An all-day barbecue followed by a curry night takes place on the Saturday with a starter and a curry with naan bread and poppadums for £12.50.

A traditional proud to be British Sunday carvery is being dished up the following day, while another all-day barbecue is being held on the Monday.

Owner Raj Dhanda said: "The Queen's Diamond Jubilee will be a wonderful occasion and we wanted to do something to celebrate."

"We want people to come and soak up the atmosphere and really enjoy themselves over the five days of celebrations at The Bridgehouse."

To make a booking at The Bridgehouse ring 01785 714426 or log on to www.thebridgehousehotel.net

Getting ready to toast the Diamond Jubilee at The Bridgehouse, Penkridge, are head chef James Platek and manager Irene Rabone

Road closure granted for street party

RESIDENTS in Cannock will be coming together for a street party to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee.

Cannock Chase District Council has granted closure of Wolverhampton Road, between St John's Close and Beech Tree Lane, for the party on Tuesday, July 3 from 1-5pm. Family friendly activities will include big-rope skipping, treasure hunts, sports games, face-painting, a bake-off, best-dressed house, craft activities, table-top games and a Jubilee quiz.

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite nilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

Manilow's still got it

Barry Manilow, LG Arena, Birmingham
"I've still got it!" quipped Barry Manilow, as his legion of Fanilows roared their approval for the line "when can I touch you" during his 36-year-old ballad Weekend in New England.

The New York singer-songwriter has still got it, if 'it' is the skill and charm of a consummate showman. He hasn't written a hit since his fertile period between 1975 and 90, but that leaves more than enough material to turn a 90 minute show into a greatest hits cavalcade.

There were the upbeat pop tunes, such as It's A Miracle, Could It Be Magic and Copacabana, but best were the ballads when Barry, though still a nifty mover at 68, sat at his keyboard. "Now the sex god needs to sit down," he said, with self-deprecating wit.

Tears

Even Now, All The Time, Looks Like We Made It - these songs are special to the mostly female and mostly middle-aged audience. Tears were in eyes as they waved their handkerchiefs.

It had been ten years since his last Birmingham show, in which time he released little original material until last year's fame concept album 15 Minutes - from which two songs were warmly received. The Brooklyn songsmith's duet via video with his younger self for Mandy was poignant. Could it be magic? Yes, it was.

Leon Burakowski

Susan dreamed a dream and it comes true in new musical

BRITAIN'S Got Talent singing star Susan Boyle guest stars in a musical about her own life, coming to Birmingham Hippodrome next week.

Marooned but magnificent

The Tempest, RSC, Stratford

JONATHAN Slinger gives a commanding, emotional performance as Prospero, the overthrown duke turned marooned magician, which towers over this production of Shakespeare's final play.

It is being presented by the Royal Shakespeare Company as part of the Bard's Shipwreck Trilogy, with the same cast performing The Comedy of Errors and Twelfth Night in repertoire.

As a whole, director David Farr has created a version that is more pleasure cruise than fantastic voyage.

Design quirks like a giant transparent cube allow, thanks to Jon Clark's exceptional lighting, great effects but actors inside it are almost unintelligible. And Amer Helehel gabbles his lines as Caliban. But the exceptional Slinger and Sandy Grierson, as his lookalike spirit Ariel, keep this production on course.

Leon Burakowski

I Dreamed A Dream, named after the song from Les Misérables which brought Boyle fame on Simon Cowell's top TV show, will see the Scottish singer played by Elaine C Smith, best known as the long-suffering wife of Glaswegian layabout Rab C Nesbitt in the eponymous TV sitcom.

The story of the frump with a beautiful voice, who stunned a nation with her talent and went on to achieve global fame, will be staged at Birmingham Hippodrome from Tuesday (May 29) to June 2.

Finale

Elaine C Smith conceived of and co-wrote this combination of play and jukebox musical, which looks at the first 47 years of Boyle's life, with funny, poignant and sometimes painful incidents whilst growing up in a West Lothian village. The climax is the sudden fame which led to her being runner-up in the 2009 series of Britain's Got Talent (dancers Diversity actually stole her thunder by winning).

The special element of this show is that, when the cast depart the stage after their final bow, the woman herself steps out of the wings... subject to availability, adds a proviso.

Susan Boyle (left) and Elaine C Smith join forces to tell the singer's life story so far in I Dreamed A Dream

Good and evil in one weekend

BOTH good and evil get a look in at Birmingham Symphony Hall this weekend.

Hollywood actor John Malkovich recites the confessions of Austrian 'celebrity' serial killer Jack Unterwieser in play with music The Infernal Comedy, featuring baroque orchestra and singers on Saturday.

Welsh conductor Karl Jenkins will lead The Manchester Orchestra, singers Cor Caerdydd and Lichfield Cathedral Young Voices for his new work The Peacemakers at the city centre venue on Sunday.

Murder mystery is a gripping period piece even without Poirot

Agatha Christie's Murder On The Nile, Wolverhampton Grand

If you are expecting a certain Belgian detective to help exercise your little grey cells, you are out of luck. That's Agatha's Christie's Death On The Nile and this is a different (if rather similar) tale from the queen of mystery. Even more confusingly, the popular 1978 film used elements from both stories.

The Nile becomes the river of no return for a couple of passengers aboard a paddle steamer in this whodunnit. Mystery fans will probably guess 'who dunnit' and puzzle instead 'how they dunnit' in this four act play set on a nicely realised cruise deck set.

There is a portly gent of a cerebral nature on hand to solve the murder mystery, Canon Ambrose Pennefather, a sort of ecclesiastical Poirot.

Murder always seems rather mundane in these antiquated Christie plays. Rather than being shocked or struck by grief, the first thought of those surrounding the victim is unmasking the killer or finding an alibi. But perhaps that's part of the creaky charm combined with stiff-upper-lip Britishness and the odd swipe at Johnny foreigner.

The ensemble cast are good. Kate O'Mara brings some humour as the splendidly named snob Mrs ffloitt-ffoulkes ("no capital F!") whilst Denis Lill is utterly dependable as the investigating clergyman. Chloe Newsome does a nicely neurotic turn as the jealous Louise de Vallois, who is stalking ill-matched newly weds Kay and Simon Mostyn (Susie Amy and Ben Nealon).

The play continues at the Grand to Saturday.

Leon Burakowski

Amstell is Numb one

Comedian Simon Amstell

COMEDIAN Simon Amstell brings his latest stand-up show to Birmingham with a gig at the New Alexandra Theatre on Friday, June 1, as part of his Numb tour.

Amstell was best known as the acerbic presenter of comedy pop quiz Never Mind The Buz-zocks but has more recently gained plaudits for his TV sitcom Grandma's House, which he stars in and co-wrote.

Stars line up for Superstar at NIA

THE 40th anniversary of Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's rock opera Jesus Christ, Superstar will be marked by an arena tour, including Birmingham NIA on October 4. The actor playing Jesus will be chosen by the public in forthcoming TV show Superstar.

Other roles will be filled by Australian comedian and musician Tim Minchin (Judas), ex-Spice Girl Melanie C (Mary Magdalene) and Radio 1 DJ Chris Moyles (King Herod).

Top property guide for Cannock, Hednesford, Rugeley, Penkridge, Heath Hayes, Great Wyrley and Burntwood

Three-bed mid-mews property at £135,950

A BEAUTIFULLY presented and improved three-bedroom mid-mews house, located off a private drive in Cheslyn Hay, is available.

Number 12 Valley Green is on the market for offers of £135,950.

It stands well back from the road behind a lawned fore garden with well-maintained gardens incorporating lawns, stepping stone pathway, paved patio, flower borders and ornamental trees and shrubs.

To the rear of the house is an enclosed area with fencing, a cold water tap, gated pedestrian access and two private parking spaces to the front.

On the ground floor is an entrance hall which leads to a lounge with bay window, double radiator, feature fire surround with electric flame-effect gas fire, television aerial point, built-in storage cupboard and coved ceiling. The refitted dining kitchen includes a range of cream gloss cupboards, an integrated fridge, drawers, work surfaces, inset stainless steel sink with mixer taps, wall cupboards with concealed lighting.

There are also built-in appliances including an electric oven, gas hob and plumbing for washing machine and central heating boiler. There is also access to the conservatory which opens to the rear garden.

Once upstairs, the first floor landing provides access to the three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

All the rooms have double-glazed windows and radiators while the bathroom has been refitted with a white suite incorporating low-flush WC, pedestal hand basin, panelled bath with mixer taps and electric shower with glass screen.

Viewing by prior appointment - arranged by the Cannock office of Boot & Son. Visit or call 01543 466913.

8 Reasons to Choose Chase Independent

When choosing the right agent to sell your biggest asset, these are the 8 things you should be looking for:

- 1 An office presence on the high street where prospective clients can comfortably speak to an advisor about the property.
- 2 Advertising in the local press and rightmove (the largest property website in the UK).
- 3 Adequate staffing to be able to answer telephone enquiries throughout the working week. No-one likes an automated answer phone.
- 4 Accompanied viewing and be able to show clients round at short notice.
- 5 We have been servicing the local market and have acquired specialised local knowledge selling in your area.
- 6 An excellent data base of prospective purchasers.
- 7 A mortgage specialist to be able to qualify buyers and ensure they are eligible for a mortgage.
- 8 We are pro-active and offer sound advice guiding you in the right direction through a difficult market.

At Chase you can be sure we offer all of the above and more, so if you're thinking of moving call Jo or Adele NOW on 01889 582233

Mercedes hybrid has all the creature comforts

LIKE with so many things that originated in America, petrol-electric hybrid cars have eventually found their way to Europe.

With the desire to reduce emissions and extend a petrol car's range, Honda and Toyota added a parallel electric motor and battery system to assist in the propulsion duties.

It is Mercedes' E-Class model that promises all the usual features and creature comforts of its maker's volume-seller, but with the added bonus of an unobtrusive hybrid system to boost range and economy over and above a conventional diesel model.

With its E 300 BlueTec Hybrid, to give it its full name, Mercedes has adopted a low-key approach to hybridisation.

A small 0.8kW lithium ion battery is located in the engine bay of the E-Class, while an equally modest 27-horsepower electric motor adds the extra, silent motive power.

The result is a helpful addition to the car's 2.1-litre twin-turbo-diesel motor, and brings total power output to 228 horsepower. Why no plug-in electric option like some rivals? In a nutshell, Mercedes views this E-Class as a useful and cost-effective step in the right direction.

Full-blown hybrids with large batteries usually suffer with reduced load space and increased weight.

This E-Class is being sold in both saloon and estate form with no discernable reduction in load space, and it's expected that a more expensive plug-in hybrid offering an increased electric-only driving range is in the pipeline.

For now, this E 300 offers largely company car drivers the ability to reduce their financial outgoings without compromising the refinement and space of a premium-size car.

At a basic level, the E 300 drives just like a E 250 CDI diesel, which is a good thing as it means you don't need to adopt a super-frugal driving style to extract a few more miles per gallon. Officially, the car returns an impressive 67.3mpg in saloon form and, disappointingly for the taxman, emits a lowly 109g/km CO₂.

These figures are partly the result of the car's ability to start and pull away in electric-only mode and continue for around half a mile if driven gently - shuffling along in city traffic springs to mind.

At the other end of the spectrum, consistent higher speed running allows the car to "sail", as Mercedes describes it, when you lift off the throttle on flat or downhill sections, as the diesel engine is switched off for short periods of time.

It's in these situations that the car's battery contributes to the proceedings, adding welcome extra motive power, allowing itself to be topped up during braking actions and adding a subtle "push" alongside the diesel motor when extra acceleration is required.

Techno-savvy drivers will no doubt get excited by what's under this E-Class' bonnet, but for the rest of us, the key issue is that the technology just works. Diesel engine start-up and shut-down on the move is barely noticeable, while the car's seven-speed auto gearbox mirrors the smooth performance of its regular petrol and diesel counterparts.

Granted, there will be a small price premium over a diesel-only E-Class, but the logic is that you'll make enough savings through fuel and tax outlay to make the sums add up.

It's also fair to say that such a car will attract early adopters, where making a statement is often the priority, not the cash saving.

Mitsubishi delivering successor to Shogun

IF YOU are in the market to buy a crossover type vehicle you will probably head straight for Nissan and look at the Qashqai as it is the market leader, but and it is a big but, I would like you to consider having a look at the Mitsubishi ASX.

The name Mitsubishi immediately creates visions of superb off-road vehicles almost akin to Land Rover in their ability to go anywhere and do anything.

Think Mitsubishi and you might think Shogun or Outlander and in fact it is the Outlander that has most of the pedigree for the ASX.

The ASX is actually built on the same platform as the Outlander so practicality and versatility are some of the key features of the ASX. The wheelbase is the same as the Outlander the passenger space in the ASX is superb, absolutely acres of space for a family to enjoy the vehicle and of course with the extra ride height that this type of vehicle gives you it makes for enjoyable driving for all members of the family.

I have to be honest and I need to get it out of the way early on in the report that I fell in love with the ASX, it is one of those vehicles that as soon as I sat in it I felt immediately comfortable.

The whole cliché that everything felt to hand is just so correct with this particular vehicle. Rarely in the past and I must drive dozens and dozens of vehicles a year have I felt so immediately comfortable. It had of course an added bonus that it is possible to choose between two and 4WD and Mitsubishi delivered the vehicle to me just prior to Easter when we had that deluge of snow and as a trip to the Peak District was planned. What better vehicle to take myself and family to the Peak District?

I think I have said this before, if I was buying this type of vehicle I would always go for the 4WD option. I cannot see the point in buying this type of vehicle merely as a 2WD, it is almost 'look at me look at what I have got'. To me the 4WD option which is on the ASX is electronically controlled, so you have the economy of running it normally in 2WD but when the going gets tough electronically you can switch to 4WD motion.

Gearbox

There is a choice of two engines, a 1.6-litre petrol producing 115 bhp or as in my case a 1.8-litre turbo diesel producing a very healthy 147 bhp. A five-speed manual gearbox is fitted to the petrol and the diesel has a six-speed manual gearbox. The diesel is also available with an electronically controlled 4WD system.

The level of equipment on the whole of the range is quite extensive for example standard equipment includes alloy wheels, air conditioning auto/stop and go, active stability control, traction control, a keyless entry system, ABS brakes with electronic brake distribution and assist, a plethora of air bags including front, side and curtains, and I liked the fact that the steering wheel has a tilt and a telescopic method of getting you comfortable in the multi-adjustable front seats.

There are three trim levels badged simplistically as 2, 3 and 4, 2 being the entry, 3 gains a fully automatic air conditioning system and one touch starting, it also benefits with cruise control, heated seats, privacy glass and the controls are now mounted on the steering wheel.

The top of the specification ASX4 benefits from leather seats and Kenwood in-car entertainment which contains an iPod and satellite navigation and a reversing camera. For me the entry level would tick all the boxes that I need.

Mitsubishi have not overlooked safety features and the vehicle is Euro NCAP as a 5*. Certain other features include extensive use of energy dispersion structuring and I do like the fact that Mitsubishi have tried to safeguard pedestrian injury aspects by including plastic front wings and energy absorbing front bumpers these may also feature if you do take the vehicle off-road and on a hill descent nudge things that you shouldn't really be doing.

Terrain

The performance and driving dynamics of the ASX were very rewarding, as previously mentioned a weekend trip to the Peak District enabled some off-roading on the snowy terrain, some dual carriageways and hilly roads in and around the hills near to the highest village in England, Flash the vehicle coped admirably at all times.

A healthy amount of luggage space could be incorporated and I particularly liked the little section underneath the boot floor that could be raised to hide valuable items.

The performance aspects of my particular diesel derivative allowed for a 0 - 60 in 10 seconds, a top speed where legal of 123 mph. Mitsubishi suggest that the combined fuel figure should be in the vicinity of 49 mpg. I managed to achieve 53 mpg according to the on-board computer which for a vehicle of this size and stature I find excellent and to beat the manufacturers figures is a brilliant result. Sadly the CO emissions on both the petrol and the diesel are not low and therefore cheap road tax is not going to be a feature.

Mitsubishi want the vehicle to be serviced at intervals of a mere 12 months and this will add to the running costs and is a little unusual, but they do operate a service plan at £450 for petrol and £650 for the diesel.

The ASX has an unlimited mileage warranty, 12 year anti-corrosion and a three year Roadside Assistance package.

With prices starting at a low £15,999 and topping out at £24,699 for the ASX4 diesel 4 x 4, you will certainly find a vehicle that should tick all the boxes.

Style and substance – Mitsubishi's ASX offers acres of room and extra driving height to ensure a great motoring experience for the driver and passengers

Japanese marques to share top award

THE SUBARU BRZ has been named by Vehicle Dynamics International magazine as Car of the Year.

The Awards' judging panel – comprised of vehicle dynamicists, automotive engineers and technical journalists – also recognised the role of the BRZ's development leader, Toshio Masuda, by naming him 'Dynamicist of the Year'.

Subaru shares these two Awards with the BRZ's near-identical sister, the Toyota GT86, and its chief engineer Tetsuya Tada.

Jury panel member Peter Cambridge, a respected performance car dynamicist, welcomed the Subaru BRZ and GT86 as "the new generation of affordable rear-wheel-drive coupes".

Graham Heeps, Editor of Vehicle Dynamics International, said: "For some time now we've been beating the drum for simplicity.

Handling

"Cars that take a less-is-more approach and offer fun at legal speeds have been thin on the ground," he added. Having already secured widespread media acclaim for its engaging handling, winning the Vehicle Dynamics International Car of the Year Award is further confirmation that the BRZ has met Subaru's objective of delivering 'Pure Handling Delight'.

"The BRZ accomplishes this thanks to its lightweight, low centre of gravity, front engine/rear-wheel-drive chassis balance, short wheelbase, and free-revving 2.0 litre Boxer engine.

Chrysler saloon's luxury and style

THE NEW Chrysler 300C executive saloon will go on sale in the UK next month.

Already with a handful of awards since its US launch at the Detroit Auto Show in 2011, the new 300C will become available in two diesel-powered versions, for which UK prices have just been announced.

Starting at just £35,995 OTR for the 300C Limited, the luxury saloon will deliver European-style quality and finesse, coupled with American-style comfort and high levels of equipment as standard. The new four-door car represents good value for money and positions the 300C among its benchmark rivals in the competitive top-line luxury sector of the market.

The highly specified 300C Executive costs just £39,995, an OTR price that includes adaptive cruise control, blind spot monitoring system, forward collision warning, keyless entry, powered rear sunshade, and heated and ventilated Nappa leather seats among its many standard features.

Economy

Available from the start with a 3.0-litre V6 diesel engine producing 236bhp and 540Nm of torque, the new 300C will return 39.8 mpg (Combined) fuel economy and has a CO2 figure of 185-191g/km depending on wheel size.

The side profile of the new 300C features the distinctive proportions of its popular predecessor, but with added refinement and a more tailored appearance.

"Production of this eagerly-awaited new executive saloon is well underway and I am delighted to be able to announce pricing," says Nigel Land, brand director, Jeep Chrysler UK.

The 300C promises distinction and innovation, as the car sets a new course for the Chrysler brand in the UK."

Supercar is in front thanks to Nissan's Track Pack

FOLLOWING customer feedback, Nissan has introduced a more track-oriented version of its GT-R supercar.

Called the Track Pack, it offers a more focussed driving experience while still remaining fully road legal.

Unlike aftermarket modifications, this GT-R has the full blessing of the car's creator Kazutoshi Mizuno.

Special six-spoke RAYS alloy wheels with gloss black centres distinguish the Track Pack GT-R on the outside, and also give a total weight saving over the standard 2012 GT-R of 10kg.

Additional brake cooling ducts built into the carbon front splitter reduce the operating temperature by as much as 100 degrees during track use, while similar ducts hidden behind the rear wheels channel cooling air over the rear discs.

Track Pack also features stiffer suspension designed to optimise track performance. It comprises a harder set-up and increased body rigidity and has been jointly developed with the GT-R development driver Toshio Suzuki during extensive testing at the Nurburgring.

It will allow GT-R customers to achieve the perfect set-up at the track but, thanks to the special dampers, customers will be able to change the suspension for road-use at a flick of a switch, making the GT-R Track Pack suitable for all environments.

Performance statistics remain unchanged to the 'standard' 2012 GT-R. That means Track Pack customers will still be able to enjoy the GT-R's 550PS power output, and a 0-62 time of just 2.8 seconds.

The Track Pack is only available in the UK and Japan, and is priced at £10,000 more than the standard £74,450 GT-R.

In Memoriam

MATTHEWS

Ann
Mom

Although four years have passed, in our hearts our memories will last. In all ways, we are sad you're gone but without a doubt you're the best Mom. The gap in our hearts won't go away, until the time we meet some day.
Love you always Mom.

Love, Em, Jase, June and all the Grandkids.

Passed away May 13.

Thank you for the 63 years we shared and for our Family. Life goes on, I know that's true but it won't be the same Derek, not without you. Always loved you, always will. God bless.

Alice.

WILKINS

Dad

We sat beside your bedside, we talked to you and cried, we stroked you hair and kissed you, the tears we couldn't hide. We held your hand right to the end, a memory we will keep, so tired you could not fight any more, all you wanted was to sleep.

We'll love you always.

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

STAFFORDSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT ACT 2004

The Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009 (Amendment) No. 12/20xx

1. Staffordshire County Council propose to make a Traffic Order under Sections 1, 2, 4, 32, 35, 45, 46, 47, 49, 53, 124 (1)(d) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and the Traffic Management Act 2004 which will prevent you from parking your vehicle at any time on the following lengths of road:
Cardinal Way, Cannock (Both Sides) – to the north and south sides of Cardinal Way from the junction with Stafford Road and in a westerly direction for a distance of approximately 18 metres.
Cardinal Way, Cannock (South Side including turning head) – from a point approximately 19 metres west of its junction with Bishop Close for a distance of approximately 81 metres in a south westerly and northerly direction.
2. Exceptions will permit waiting for the purposes of taking up and setting down passengers; loading or unloading goods; for vehicles displaying a Disabled Person's Badge; and where necessary in connection with the maintenance of roads and the supply of gas, electricity, telephones, sewerage services and water in the service of the Environment Agency, for emergency service vehicles; for vehicles being used for the provision of a universal postal service by a universal service provider; for buses waiting at an authorised bus stop; for vehicles being used for floods defence works or land drainage works; and for so long as is reasonably necessary in connection with any wedding or funeral.
3. This Order will amend the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009.
4. This Order will be called the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009 (Amendment) No. 12/20xx.
5. This Order will amend the Plans which form part of the Staffordshire County Council (Cannock Chase) (Civil Enforcement of Parking) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting and Loading and Parking Places) (Conversion) Order 2009 (Amendment) No. 12/20xx.
6. Full details of these proposals are in the draft Order which, together with a map showing the road involved and a statement of the County Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order, may be examined during normal office hours at the office of the Deputy Chief Executive & Director for Place, and during normal opening hours at Cannock Library, Manor Avenue, Cannock, Staffordshire.
7. IF YOU WISH TO OBJECT TO THE PROPOSED ORDER YOU SHOULD SEND THE GROUNDS OF YOUR OBJECTION IN WRITING TO THE DEPUTY CHIEF EXECUTIVE & DIRECTOR FOR PLACE, HIGHWAYS, 1 STAFFORDSHIRE PLACE, TIPPING STREET, STAFFORD, ST16 2LP NOT LATER THAN 14 JUNE 2012 QUOTING REFERENCE HoCPS/TM/TR 7/12.

Date 24 May 2012.
John Tradewell, Director of Law and Democracy,
2 Staffordshire Place, Tipping Street, Stafford, ST16 2LP.

ordinary people. extraordinary work.

Adullam Homes Housing Association provides high quality housing and support services for vulnerable and excluded people from a diverse range of backgrounds. Their mission is to restore hope and dignity through offering a wide ranging and inclusive program of person centred support.

Project Worker

Staffordshire Floating Support
Circa £18,000 pa
Based at Cannock, 35 hours per week

The primary purpose of this post is to co-ordinate a multi-agency response through a person centred support package for vulnerable people who have been excluded from accommodation or are at risk of becoming homeless. You'll be responsible for the delivery of a person centred support package that is tailored to each individual accessing the service, under the guidance and supervision of a senior/manager.

The support will assist service users in developing the skills required to maintain their tenure, enabling them to re-establish themselves in the community and move on to independent living. You must behave in a way consistent with our values and standards and deliver an excellent, professional service.

You'll act consistently with our values, giving support and encouragement to others. You will have knowledge and understanding of the needs of homeless people, young people and teenage parents, as well as the relevant support agencies that service users may need. Knowledge of current welfare benefits and related entitlements are essential along with basic IT skills. Additionally, you will be a clear communicator with the ability to make consensus decisions.

You must hold a current clean driving licence and have access to own transport. Car user allowance provided. Package also offers pension scheme and healthcare.

To apply online go to www.adullam.org.uk

Closing date: Thursday 14th June 2012.

Don't forget to quote the reference number.

This post is subject to an Enhanced Criminal Records Bureau check.

At Adullam we celebrate diversity and offer opportunities for all – the only difference we see is the difference you can make.

Adullam Homes Housing Association Limited is a Charitable Industrial and Provident Society. No. 20853R.

Sure win keeps up the run for Penkridge

Penkridge 211-9,
Aston Manor 91.

Penkridge won by 120 runs
PENKRIDGE firsts continued their 100 per cent winning start to the new season with a convincing 120 run victory over Aston Manor in a game that was reduced to 50 overs per side.

Penkridge made steady progress with Rana Hussan (44) and Laeq Christi (45).

However, at 164-8 Penkridge were in some trouble and were indebted to Mo Hassan (21) and Roger Weston (20 not out) as they posted a respectable 211-9.

Aston Manor's reply got off to a frantic start.

However, they were soon in trouble with Roger Western taking 2-32, but the star performer was Laeq Chishti who took 7-31 as Aston were dismissed for 91 in only 22 overs.

Penkridge 217, Aston Manor 218-8. Aston Manor won by two wickets

Penkridge seconds lost their 100 per cent start to the season in a thrilling game that was decided on the final ball of the match.

Batting first, Penkridge were soon in trouble but a fine sixth-wicket partnership from Rob Lawrence (51) and Jon Price (66) rescued the innings and gave Penkridge a defendable total of 217.

In reply Aston got off to a shaky start with Matt Jenkinson (2-21) bowling well.

It wasn't until the introduction of Jon Price (3-37) that the game swung back in Penkridge's favour.

However, Adam Nevitt had different ideas and hit the final three balls of the match to the boundary to secure the win for Aston Manor.

Hammerwich 182-6,
Penkridge 183-3. Penkridge won by seven wickets

Penkridge fourths' bowlers managed to restrict Hammerwich to 182-6 from their 45 overs, with youngsters Ollie Deacon, Sam Timmins and Jake Dawson all taking a wicket apiece.

However the total never seemed big enough with Zubair Khan (85 not out) dominating the Hammerwich attack.

With useful contributions from Duncan Horobin (35) and John Heaton (27), Penkridge eased to a seven-wicket victory with 20 overs to spare.

The thirds' match with Whittington was abandoned without play.

Chris Brewerton and Dave Shaw share the fans' honours

Chris Clements picked up three honours on the night

Cheyenne Dunkley was another hat-trick award winner

Premier League star is an example for Pitmen

ASHLEY WILLIAMS returned to Hednesford for the club's end-of-season awards as a hero to the young starlets looking to blaze a similar path to the Premier League.

Swansea and Wales star Williams couldn't put a foot wrong on his return to Keys Park as he presented awards to both the youth side and the team's captain Brad Grice.

The Wolverhampton-born defender is a shining example to just how things can change in football and his message is clear after his return last Friday night.

The 27-year-old first arrived at Hednesford after being shown the door by Albion aged 16 and rebuilt his career with the Pitmen, over two years from 2001.

The Football League then came calling as Williams moved on to Stockport, beating off fierce competition from Oldham Athletic for his services.

The powerful centre-back won a full Wales call-up and secured a move to Swansea in the same month, March 2008, and his rise has just gone on and on.

Williams has now made 146 appearances for the Swans, who defied the odds to finish 11th in the Premier League last season, and won 32 caps for Wales.

His presence at the top has made the club and its supporters so keen to remind their current youth all taking a wicket apiece.

They may not have the riches and status of a Football League club or their academies, but they still know a good player when they see one.

Supporters club joint-chairman Scott Smith said: "The supporters association, club and youth team are all run so well by the tireless work of a large number of individuals."

by Craig Birch

"They put in a lot of hours to complete another exciting season. The appearance by Ashley Williams was a great part of the event."

"The youth team deserved to meet a very well known ex-Pitman."

The youth team finally got their hands on the Midland Floodlit Youth League Northern Division title and it was Williams who handed over the trophy.

They also received their winners' medals from the star guest, who also named Grice as the club's Young Player of the Year.

Dave Shaw and Chris Brewerton picked up awards as Fans of the Year for their work over the season as historian and press officer respectively.

The first-team's star men were honoured with the biggest awards of the night, as Chris Clements and Cheyenne Dunkley were both honoured.

It may be the last the Pitmen see of another graduate back into the full-time game - Clements is on the verge of agreeing a two-year contract at Mansfield.

The midfielder picked up the Travel Club and Supporters' Player of the Year and Goal of the Season awards, for an absolute belter against champions Chester in January.

Dunkley won the Supporters Association, Manager's and Players' Player of the Year trophies and is rated as one of the best defenders in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League.

The centre-back could also be on his way this summer having spent time on trial with Burnley and Birmingham this year and, naturally, wants to play as high as he can.

But, whatever happens, the footballing fraternity at Hednesford will keep going.

Club secretary Terry McMahon said: "It was a pleasure to see such a strong turnout of supporters and players alike to celebrate another season for the club."

"It also gave everyone the opportunity to recognise work done at Keys Park."

Premier League and former Hednesford defender Ashley Williams, now playing for Swansea and Wales, poses with the Pitmen's title-winning youth team at Keys Park

Pedersen says no to deal at Wolves

NICKI PEDERSEN has turned down a short-term deal at Wolves.

The club asset, currently just two points behind leader Jason Crump in the Grand Prix standings, was contacted by management after Tai Woffinden broke a scaphoid bone in his wrist.

But the triple world champion won't be filling the breach due to his current responsibilities.

Team boss Peter Adams said: "He doesn't want to come. He's been approached and he doesn't want to do it."

"I can quite understand that. He is hovering near the top of the Grand Prix."

He rides in Sweden and Poland and accommodating this is just a bridge too far."

Pedersen has been a controversial figure in recent years at Monmore Green.

But attitudes towards him among the fan base have mellowed recently. He gets 'panto' booing on his appearances at the track - and laps it up.

Injury-hit Wolves, with Woffinden and Nicolai Klindt both out with broken bones, were beaten 54-39 at Monmore Green in the first leg of their Knockout Cup quarter-final on Monday.

Chasetown outshone by Diamonds

Chasetown Girls U13 1
Lichfield Diamonds U13 2

CHASETOWN started brightly enough with Summer Johnson having a shot cleared and another saved in the opening minutes of the game but then Diamonds scored two in quick succession against the run of play.

There was some great link-up play in midfield from Annie Greatrex and Megan Dainty saw Beth Hickman and Rhianon Winwood.

The second half saw a more focused Chasetown take the field and it was not long before a neat pass from Summer to super sub Phoebe Langford saw her take the ball up the wing to the byline and cross it in for Beth score.

The Scholars continued to press.

Despite making the second half their own, the equaliser would not come and Diamonds took the win.

Wrestlers excited to be part of K-Star fun

LOCAL grapplers Richard Lockwood and Darren Podmore will become K-Star wrestling characters on Saturday.

K-Star Wrestling puts on its 10th Show in Cannock at the Edward Street Club. Lockwood and Podmore have regular day jobs as forklift driver and electrician respectively.

But on Saturday they will transform into K-Star characters 'The Tank' Rich Lockheart and 'The Rebel' Big Bad Donaghan.

Lockwood said: "We are really looking forward to performing in front of our friends and family."

"We are up and down the country all the time, so no-one local gets to see us."

"But now they will and it should be a lot of fun."

KSW was founded 11 years ago by former World of Sport wrestler Steve Logan.

He was seen on ITV's World of Sport frequently with the likes of Big Daddy.

Logan also travelled to Canada where he trained at the Hart Dungeon with Stu Hart.

He wrestled against and alongside the likes of Bret Hit Man Hart, British Bulldog and Fit Finley among others.

The show will also feature other larger than life characters such as Kid Flash and the Undead Demon.

Tickets cost £5 and are available on the night or through 07974 658170.

Food and a bar will be available. More details at www.kstar-wrestling.com

Girl players are wanted

A CHASETOWN girls' football team is on the lookout for new players.

Chasetown Youth FC, a Charter Standard Community club in the Burntwood area, want to strengthen their under-15s side for the 2012-13 season.

Players need to be in school years eight or nine, moving up to years nine and 10 in September.

The team play on Saturday mornings in the Central Warwickshire Girls' League and train on Thursday evenings from 6.30pm at Cherry Close playing fields in Burntwood.

Anyone interested should turn up at training or contact the club via email at chasetowngirls@gmail.com

Jamie Mansell and teacher Ash Holmes

Sport changes life of pupil

Boxing

A BOXING COACH has paid tribute to a school pupil who has "turned his life around" through the sport.

Peter Hickenbottom, of Great Wyrley ABC, was speaking after Jamie Mansell made a promising start to his boxing career with a unanimous points decision over home-town rival Stephen Boyd (Donnington ABC).

For once, a Great Wyrley boxer was taller than his ring opponent – and Mansell made the most of this opportunity to get his southpaw jab operational. He took the first round as Boyd struggled to get going.

It got better for Mansell in the second round as he brought his other hand into play and began to rock back the head of Boyd, who couldn't cope with the Wyrley fighter's strength. Both tired in the last round, but Mansell was well worth his unanimous points win.

Hickenbottom said: "For the past two years I have worked with pupils from Elmwood School in Rushall."

"Elmwood is a special school for pupils with social, emotional and behavioural problems, and Jamie is a pupil there."

"He's been coming down to the boxing club, via the school, and in the last two years I have seen a dramatic change in his behaviour and his personality."

"When he first started he wouldn't communicate with anyone and his behaviour at school was quite shocking on a regular day to day basis."

"Slowly but surely, he's turned his life around with boxing being his inspiration."

"He's knuckled down to the hard training that comes with boxing, dedicating himself to the sport," he added.

"As a result, his behaviour at school has vastly improved. The school itself is very supportive and Jamie's teacher Ash Holmes, made the journey to cheer him on, which was wonderful."

"Boxing gets a lot of bad press, but it gives kids like Jamie an aim in life. He's still quiet, but not as quiet as he used to be, and is well-respected in the gym."

Sunshine prompts hopes of angling bonanza

JUST when we thought May was going to be another washout month, anglers are now beginning to get excited at the prospect of some fair-weather fishing, writes Vernon Leadbetter.

The Blackfords AC match at Kingswood Lake on Saturday proved that the roach stock are flourishing and there were a few double-figure weights of red fins caught on float-fished maggots.

The top three weights were dominated by bream catches.

First was John Burns, fishing on peg 47, with 23lb 4oz; second was Chris Brown, with 18lb 14oz from peg 38 and third, Norman Carpenter on peg 48 with 14lb 9oz.

Carp are beginning to show in all Blackfords waters, with some of the better specimens being caught at Leecroft and Turf pools.

Most of the fisheries are reporting a gradual improvement.

Anglers at Chorley Springs fishery have been catching some nice bags of tench as well as the odd specimen carp.

Buzzers

Trout anglers have also been getting into the action recently.

Carsington Water has returned an average catch rate of almost 10 fish per angler.

Blithfield Reservoir has seen some excellent returns with anglers catching on buzzers, hawthorn and dry fly patterns.

Biggest Rainbow trout of the week weighed 8lb.

Anyone interested in taking up fly fishing would benefit from half or full-day courses we at Archline Angling are organising with Hardy Greys academy instructor Andy Taylor.

They include casting tuition, fishing and use of tackle.

Dog has its day as CK miss out on cup shock

CK Academy 1 The Dog 3
(after extra-time, full-time score 1-1)
THIRD DIVISION CK Academy nearly pulled off the biggest cup upset in Cannock Chase Cup history.

They led the final 1-0 at half-time and then took Premier League leaders, The Dog, to extra-time before finally running out of steam. On the half-hour mark, Ben Farrell forced the keeper into an error to put Academy in front.

On the hour, Brad Lawley levelled with barely a cheer as the majority of the 266 crowd were behind the underdogs.

No Third Division team had previously even reached the last four – and CK were going into extra time against the favourites.

But a goal in each half of extra time from John Charters and Ryan Vaughan finally gave The Dog their second competition victory in the last three seasons.

Presentations were made by former Chase League chairman Phil Dunning and Michael Bayliss of sponsors Aero Five Star Taxis. Man of the match was Oliver Hale.

Broomhill Albion 3
Short Heath Collier 4
Second Division runners-up Short Heath took consolation by winning the tier's Knockout Cup.

Collier got off to a flyer with three goals in the first 15 minutes through John Bradley, Ian Longston and George Crowe.

Broomhill replied through Dave Hudson and Alan Dawson just before half-time.

Man of the match Scott Sjoerdma gave Short Heath

Chase League

a two-goal advantage inside the first minute of the second half.

Broomhill pulled a back a goal from Asa Wright, but Short Heath, beaten finalists last year, held on to win the Ron Brindley Cup, presented by Mrs Carol Brindley in front of a crowd of 203.

Brereton Town Cup
The Cannock Chase League finish off their cup finals for the season with the Brereton Town Cup final on May 27 (4pm) at Great Wyrley FC between Yates Sports from the Premier League and AFC Homestead from Division One.

Results
Division 2: Victoria 3 Harrisons 2.
Division 3: Bridge 2 Lea Hall 1; Louis Autos 1 Littleton 3.

Cannock Chase Cup final: CK Academy 1 The Dog 3.

Lichfield Charity Cup final: Belt Road 2 Rugeley Utd 2 (aet, 2-2 at full time, Rugeley won 3-2 on pens).

Division Two League Cup final: Broomhill Alb 3 Short Heath Collier 4.

Fixtures
Premier Division: Belt Road v Brereton Social Lion.

Brereton Town Cup Final: Yates Sports v Homestead.

Jock Corrigan Cup Final: Fildware Oak v Rugeley Utd.
